Vero Beach FL: Top Vero Beach FL real estate agent Karen Mathers recently talked about the benefits of living in a 55+ community. In her latest blog post, Karen discussed how owning a home in a 55+ community helps seniors start a new chapter in their lives after retirement.

Karen?s website, www.verobeach55plushomesforsale.com, offers a wealth of information about the Vero Beach, FL market. Homebuyers and sellers can visit this website to get free tips for buying and selling homes and check out active listings in the area.

In her most recent blog post, Karen shared new insights about living in 55 plus Vero Beach, FL, emphasizing how transitioning from a home filled with fun memories to a retirement community is not as bad as most people think it is. According to Karen, living in a retirement community is not only ideal for people who want to downsize and live a more maintenance-free lifestyle but for those who want to make the most of their retirement years as well.

Karen said that one of the major benefits of owning a home in a 55+ community is the opportunity to join activities that are not only fun but are also good for the health. Retirement communities in Vero Beach, FL have fitness centers and recreational centers that help seniors enjoy life and stay healthy at the same time.

Living in a 55+ community, according to Karen, also provides seniors a sense of belongingness, autonomy and security. ?The sense of belongingness and community that a 55+ neighborhood provides is different from that of a typical standalone residential neighborhood. This is because adults living in a 55+ community often have the same goal of creating lasting friendships and working together to advocate certain issues,? she explained.

Back in April, Karen launched her own website to make it easier for potential homebuyers to find a retirement home in Vero Beach, FL. The website features active home listings in the area and articles that discuss everything that homebuyers and sellers need to know about the Vero Beach real estate market.

As a Realtor, Karen?s goal is to help her clients find their dream home in Vero Beach. ?My passion is working with you to find your dream home for your retirement. Whether you are selling your home straight away up north to move here to the fun in the sun or you are first going to buy a home here at these awesome prices while transitioning, perhaps enjoying being snowbirds for the first few years? I am here for you. I got it,? she said.

Karen?s clients can attest to her professionalism as an agent. One of her clients, Pat Frank, wrote in her review, ?Karen Mathers was an excellent realtor for our recent move to Vero Beach. We took four months of her time while she patiently showed us the whole area with a variety of properties. She was so responsive with all our concerns. We?ve made about 13 previous moves and her expertise made for a very positive experience.?
