June 27, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Freddie and Sebbie, a business in Las Vegas, NV, have just released a range of outdoor picnic ideas to celebrate the fact that their outdoor picnic blanket has received over 100 positive reviews on Amazon. They have also, for a limited time only, released the blanket with $5 off. They hope that this will enable more people to enjoy the great outdoors this summer.

"The great summer is upon us once again and people are itching to go outside", says Neil Speight from Freddie and Sebbie. "We want to make sure that when they do so, they have lots of fun and that they are completely comfortable. Our outdoor picnic blanket, currently available at a discount while stocks last, can take care of the comfort element."

By reading the various outdoor picnic blanket reviews, Freddie and Sebbie have also been able to build up some great picnic ideas. "This is indeed a very luxurious and elegant outdoor blanket", says Dr. Bojan Tunguz, a top 100 reviewer on Amazon. "It's quite obvious that a lot of care was invested in its design and manufacturing. It comes with leather straps and handles, which make it very convenient to carry with you. The top side of the blanket is very soft and comfortable to sit on. Our baby boy, who is usually not very keen on most of our outdoor gear, immediately took to it the first time we sat on it. He was just really enjoying himself and couldn't stop playing. The bottom side is made out of a very sturdy and waterproof material, and it will keep you dry on most damp surfaces. This comes in handy on a beach or on a lawn after a rain. The blanket is large enough to accommodate two adults, plus one or two small children."

Clearly, a lot of people are using the picnic blanket for events out with their family. However, others feel they are perfect for romantic getaways for just two people. Every outdoor picnic blanket review, however, mentions the fact that it can be used on many different surfaces. "I own several picnic blankets, and this one is BY FAR my favorite!", says Eric Romaine. "The blanket is BIG! The base is waterproof and it doesn't let any wetness in. This is important for those early morning soccer games where the grass is still dewy. And finally, it looks REALLY NICE."

Clearly, the great summer means that people will soon be flocking to beaches, parks, forests, hiking trails and more. The picnic blanket is perfect for any of those areas, even if there has been a spot of rain. Thanks to the waterproof bottom, people can be comfortable even if the ground is still damp.
