Plano Texas Foundation Pros are pleased to announce that their customers in the local Plano community continue to show that they are happy with the work that was done. The foundation repair company receives positive reviews often from its customers and these are posted on the company website. A major repair or a minor repair is important to correct issues with the existing foundation or to prevent damage to the building structure from occurring in the future.

A review from home owner Jerry Lawrence stated, "I was very impressed with the recent foundation repair work that these guys did for my rental property in Plano. I will call again if another house needs it."

Additional customer reviews for foundation repair in Plano can be seen on the company's Google Maps page: https://goo.gl/4P8Dya.

For more than 31 years, since its founding in April of 1987, Gary Hunt and his father Bill Hunt have been doing structural repair on houses throughout the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex. Gary Hunt continues to operate the family office where the base operations are still located in Fort Worth. The company is now known as Texas Foundation Pros and is the premier name in the industry. There are additional locations for the company, including Plano and others.

Plano Texas Foundation Pros has the knowledge and experience to perform repairs on every type of foundation, In the northern Texas area, this is typically a concrete slab. This type of structure is best suited to clay soils which are prevalent in the area. The company can also perform repairs on beam and pier structures.

The reason for the damages can vary. Typically, the soil or gravel bed underneath the structure begins to shift causing the support to fail. The company does an assessment to determine the cause of the failure and designs a plan to implement a solution. The experience by the reviewers has been positive and they posted about it online.
