June 19, 2015 -

Gems of La Costa, a Carlsbad, California jeweler for over 20 years, announces their expansion of service areas to include Encinitas, San Marcos, Oceanside, Cardiff by the Sea and Solana Beach. Gems of La Costa, established in 1989 by Dale and Linda Condry Have earned their local reputation as engagement ring specialists. The company, which offers a wide selection of high-end quality jewelry, expands their business services to reach customers in other areas.

After 20 years of providing engagement rings and diamond jewelry to couples in Carlsbad, Gems of La Costa is widening their services for clients who are searching for engagement rings in other areas. This service will include helping individuals pick and choose diamonds, bands, as well as create their own designs much easier from other area locations.

For Solana Beach engagement rings and all other locations, Gems of La Costa will offer custom design and manufacturing. Their master jeweler will custom design jewelry which will allow clients to can own one-of-a-kind engagement rings or any other jewelry created by them from scratch. The professional team will help clients put ideas on paper, and craftsmen will create the piece of their choice.

Aside from engagement rings, Gems of La Costa will also offer old, silver & platinum repair, cleaning and ring sizing for any Encinitas engagement rings that are heirlooms. Gems of La Costa will provide assistance with family jewelry that needs sprucing up or sizing for the new bride in the family. Jewelers will also offer laser jewelry repair that can fix almost anything.

These new expanded services to other locations mean clients will get assistance with picking diamonds. Engagement ring services will include lesson about the 4c's: color, clarity, cut and carat, and learning what grades offer the best value. San Marcos engagement ring clients will now get help understanding the most value for their diamond investment. Clients looking for unique sizes and shapes that is not in stock, will have their item search on a computer network that can locate and deliver a well-priced selection in as little as 24 hours or less.

This new expanded service will allow for professionals to provide work for bridal, engagement ring, and fashion jewelry clients who are unable to get service now. A jeweler for Gems of La Costa states, "We operate Gems of La Costa with a simple philosophy. To offer quality, integrity and value and strive to do business on a "win-win" basis. We are excited to now offer this philosophy and service to expanded areas."

Gems of La Costa plans to continue to expand their engagement ring services into other areas of Southern California.
