FlashBright of Tea, SD, have introduced one of their most popular products to date: the FlashBright LED Headlamp. Known for its ultra bright and tough durability, it represents the best and brightest LED tool on the market today.

"There are many headlamps around, but the quality of our products is really by far one of the best that you'll ever have. In fact, we are so confident of our product that we're offering not one but two guarantees: our 100% satisfaction money back guarantee and our lifetime warranty," says company spokesperson Ryan Marks.

The Flashbright LED headlamp is designed for maximum power and movement. It uses state-of-the-art LED technology and a hands-free feature that gives users more control and a wider range of motion. "It's great for indoor use, but you get a true sense of their value when you are outdoors at night," explains Ryan "This headlamp is ideally suited for hikers, bikers, fishermen, hunters, campers, runners, joggers, emergency workers, and many others who need that extra light to see through the darkness."

Studies show that many accidents happen at night each year due to a lack of light source," says Julie Meyers, an avid fan of the product. "The FlashBright Headlamp can be one of the best tools to keep with you at night, and since it's hands-free, you get a consistent, bright, targeted light wherever you need it."

The powerful headlamp is 200 times brighter than your average LED. It is water resistant, lightweight, adjustable, and zoomable (5x) It has 3 light modes (high, low, and flash), with a 500 foot range. It's made from military-grade aluminum with a fully adjustable head band, making it customizable for everyone.

The company keeps its promise of delivering the best service and high quality standards by welcoming feedback from its customers. That is why they currently are only selling on Amazon, do to their superior feedback system. "We really want to know what you think about our products," the company's spokesperson says. "You can like us on Facebook, or just drop by to say hello. We're more than happy to welcome you."
