We Buy Houses In Newport News, Says Dependable Homebuyers

September 12, 2018

September 12, 2018 -
Dependable Homebuyers Newport from Newport News, Virginia, recently announced that they have opened a new office. The company's newest location is at 75 Huxley Pl, Newport News, VA 23606. A spokesperson for the company stated that they are now purchasing houses in Newport News and states that they buy houses in any condition.

Evan Roberts, a representative for Dependable Homeowners states, "We wanted to announce that as of now, we are buying houses in Newport News. Homeowners who are interested in getting a quote can contact us directly for an offer."

Roberts states that the company pays fair market price for all purchased homes and that they can make an offer on the same day. He says that they can even guarantee their offer and provide homeowners with a check within just two weeks of the initial offer date.

"If you are selling your home," Roberts says, "You want the process to go quickly. You want to know that you are getting a fair price and that it is not going to take months for you to get your money. For instance, you may be relocating to another state for a new job. Or you may be planning to use the money for funding that move. We ensure that you get your money quickly and we always offer the fairest possible price for your home."

Roberts says that there are a number of reasons that homeowners contact them for purchasing their homes. He says that selling their home can help homeowners avoid foreclosures and that they purchase homes from those going through divorce, homeowners who are relocating, people who inherited a property that they do not want or need, anyone who owns a vacant house and no longer wants the work and frustrations involved in offering it for rent, and a number of other reasons. Homeowners who are behind on their mortgage payments, upside down in their mortgage or anyone who wants to sell their home and wants the process to go quickly and smoothly can contact Dependable Homebuyers.

The company works in a number of areas throughout the region and states that interested homeowners should contact them directly to determine if their home is in an area that they service. Interested homeowners can learn more on the company's official website at https://www.dependablehomebuyers.com/virginia/newport-news/ or call them directly to learn more about how to get the process started.

Roberts says that they also work with homeowners who need repairs done to their properties but have neither the time nor the funding to handle those repairs. He states that owning a home can be an expensive undertaking and those who are not ready to handle the expenses of home ownership can contact the company to learn more about selling that home. Roberts says that they have worked with a number of homeowners who simply could not afford the year to year maintenance involved in owning a home. The homeowners sell their home and then live in a rental, which is much less stressful for many.

The company works throughout Newport News and James City County, buying homes as is. Homeowners do not have to worry about making any repairs or improvements as they would if they were to list their homes for sale through a traditional real estate agency. Roberts says that in addition to that benefit, homeowners also have the advantage of not having to pay a commission fee to a real estate agency so they essentially get more from the sale of their homes. Real estate agencies typically charge three to five percent, which can amount to thousands of dollars on a home that sells for more than $100,000. Roberts states that homeowners who sell their homes to Dependable Homebuyers in Newport News can avoid that fee, thus putting more cash in their pocket, and he says that they can get the cash faster than with a traditional home sale.

Roberts says, "When we buy houses Newport News homeowners can enjoy a number of additional benefits when selling to Dependable Homebuyers in Virginia." The company is not a real estate agency but rather a group of professional home buyers. Those selling can bypass the listing process and make a faster and smoother sale, avoiding the long wait times that traditional listings can bring and Roberts states that in many cases, the company even pays the closing costs so sellers get even more money in their pockets. Those interested in learning more about the process or in scheduling a time to obtain a quote to sell their home can contact the company directly or through their official website, where all of their contact information is listed.
