Norfolk, VA ? G & W Gifts & Awards is always happy to show off their new products to customers. The company provides products such as trophies, banners, medals, and ribbons for any occasion. This company has been providing awards Norfolk organizations have relied on for many years.

"We put our customers first in everything we do," says Bruce Gilbert with the company. "From our turnaround time to our products, we will always ensure that you get what you need to make your moments special."

The company has been providing custom awards in Norfolk for years and now has a large range of products in various styles, colors, and sizes. Gilbert proudly states that their products are high quality and are perfect for any event.

G & W Gifts and Awards normally produces and finishes custom awards very quickly and states that they cater to local customers because buying locally offers several benefits, not the least of which is speed. The company also points out that those purchasing locally also have the added benefit of being able to quickly correct mistakes that the company can typically do within a day or less.

When it comes to giving awards such as medallions in Norfolk, organizations have been relying on G & W Gifts and Awards for many years and they plan to serve for as long as they possibly can. Any of their new products are available to be viewed on the official company website, where employers and others can also take a look at the entire line of products and services that the company offers. Products currently include acrylic as well as custom art and crystal awards, monthly recognition programs, plaques, and several other trophies and products for a variety of business and organizational needs.
