

Yoga Towel Back In Stock, Says Yoga Jaci

September 10, 2018

September 10, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Yoga Jaci, an online store based in Cape Coral, FL, that offers products for yoga enthusiasts, is happy to announce that their yoga towel is back in stock. The towel that has been specifically designed for yoga practitioners has been out of stock since July 2018. According to Yoga Jaci, the new shipment has finally arrived on September 7, 2018.

Betty A. Stanley from Yoga Jaci says, "We are very happy to inform our customers that the new shipment for our yoga towels has finally arrived FBA on September 7. This means that those who have been clamoring for these towels will no longer be frustrated when they visit our online store to make a purchase. Meanwhile, please note that customers can use the Amazon coupon code TOWEL10X which provides them with a 10 percent discount. Note that this coupon code will be valid until the end of October 2018."

There are two kinds of yoga towels available at Yoga Jaci. One is the towel for the yoga mat and the other one is a hand towel. The yoga mat towels are extra long in size at 24 inches by 72 inches. Because of their extra length, they can easily cover the yoga mat. Meanwhile, the yoga hand towel measures 24 inches by 15 inches. Because of its extra large size, it can also be used as a face towel.

Betty Stanley explains that these towels are perfect for yoga enthusiasts because of a number of qualities.

First of all, they are slip-resistant because they are made from high quality microfiber materials. This is essential because when a person practicing yoga is wet with perspiration, there is a strong chance of the yoga mat slipping on the floor. With the slip-resistant towel over the yoga mat, the yoga practitioner can attain a harder posture or utilize advance techniques. There is no more worry about slipping.

Secondly, the yoga mat towel easily absorbs sweat and water. That is to be expected because basically, that is what towels are for. Next, it can act as a hygienic barrier for the yoga mat. With less sweat and bacteria getting to the mat, it is expected that it will last longer than without the towel to absorb the sweat and bacteria. And naturally, since Yoga Jaci has made it its mission to ensure customer satisfaction, this yoga towel is made from high quality microfiber materials, which are 85 percent polyester and 15 percent polyamide, to provide those slip-resistant and very soft characteristics. And edge stitching has been ensured to be of high quality to ensure that it does not fray easily and will last for a long time.

Meanwhile, these yoga towels are also available on Amazon. On Amazon, this product has more than 600 customer reviews, with a rating of 4.7 out of 5 stars. One Amazon customer who gave the product five stars says, "... The towel stayed put on my mat, and neither my hands nor feet slipped. This was the perfect size, covering my entire mat with a tiny bit of excess fabric on the top and bottom. I did not pre-wet the towel, though I sweat on it throughout class. Definitely going to invest in more of these. I can't speak yet to their longevity, but the initial quality seemed good...."

Another Amazon customer who gave the towel five stars says, "This is my first yoga mat towel so I don't have anything else to reference to. I did do a lot of research before purchasing anything because I wanted a towel where I would not skid or slip easily. This towel gets the job done for the most part. While it's still dry I do have to be careful not to slip in certain poses but it's not like I'm flying off the mat. Traction also increases when the yoga is wet either from sweat or using a spray bottle. I particularly liked that the yoga mat towel came with a hand towel and that is actually why I purchased this particular brand. [...] I definitively would buy again."

The yoga mat towel and the yoga hand towel can either be purchased as a set or separately. But as always, lifetime 100 percent money back guarantee is provided by Yoga Jaci. Furthermore, delivery within the US is provided free of charge for the Amazon prime member.

Those interested in learning more about this hot yoga towel or those who plan to make a purchase can visit the company website or its Amazon page.
