September 17, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Chic's Limo, a limousine and transportation service based in Blue Bell, PA, has announced that they have added the Mercedes Sprinter to their fleet. The Mercedes Sprinter is a brand new 13 passenger party bus that is loaded with Apple TV, HDMI hookup, WiFi, two 40-inch television sets, and many more.

Mike Ciccarone, a spokesperson for Chic's Limo, says, "We are happy to announce the addition of a brand new Mercedes Sprinter to our luxurious and state-of-the-art fleet of party buses. You can use these party buses for various events for individuals or corporations, such as weddings, concert tailgates, New York City trips, and various corporate events."

Meanwhile, as can be seen from the company's website and Google Maps page, they have received a total of 42 reviews, most of which are five star reviews, providing them with a 4.7 average rating.

For instance, Faith P., who gave the limo and transportation service a five-star rating, says, "Chuck was absolutely incredible. He was so timely and got us to all our locations safely. At one point, our bridal party was dismissed for pictures and it looked like it was about to rain. Chuck came out to meet us with an umbrella just in case. He was so helpful with all our bags, considering there was 18 passengers on board. He was awesome and I highly would recommend this company to anyone looking for transportation, and if you can request Chuck. He will not disappoint. Thank you again Chuck for everything."

Meanwhile, Irene Y., who also gave Chic's Limo five stars, says, "Amazing. No other words to describe Chic's limo services. My family and I personally used their services on many different occasions (from prom to weddings to pick up services from the airport). Very professional and accommodating. Never had any issues. Always responsive and will provide all the details for your event day. Personally I want to thank you guys again for always being there. I would highly recommend this company. They have been in the business for a long time and always very reliable and reasonably priced, and for me those are very important things that I look for when giving my business to a company."

Mike Ciccarone also proudly points out that Chic's Limo has received the Best Wedding Limousine Service Award in the 2017-2018 Happening List and the Best Wedding Limousine Service in the 2017 Philadelphia A-List Awards.

The party bus rental service of Chic's Limo offers several variations, including a 42 passenger party bus, 34 passenger party bus, 30 passenger party bus, 20 passenger party bus, and now the 13 passenger party bus.

Meanwhile, as can be gleaned from the awards, the service is often used for weddings. Experts from Chic's Limo can help the bride and groom in planning the wedding transportation. Mike Ciccarone says that the wedding limo rental service includes complimentary ice, spring water for those who are experiencing wedding jitters or for the couple's first toast as husband and wife. Special services may also be requested.

In addition, Chic's Limo also provides driving services for bachelor and bachelorette parties. With a designated chauffeur, party goers can go club hopping in Philadelphia using one of the limos or they can just hang out in one of the party buses, which are equipped with six LCDs, including one with a 52-inch flat screen TV and the most advanced sound system. Door-to-door service is provided for the party goers to ensure their safety.

Aside from weddings, Chic's Limo also offers driving services for proms and other special occasions. People going to the prom, sweet sixteen celebration, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Quinceanera or 25th anniversary would be able to make a grand entrance with the limousine transportation. The professional drivers will always keep a watchful eye on the partying young people so parents can have peace of mind.

Those who love sports can also make use of the limousine transportation services. Chic's Limo can pick customers at their door and bring them to the college game, or to Phillies, Eagles, 76ers, and Flyers home and away games.

For businesses, the limo transportation service can pick up executives and guests and bring them to Citizens

Bank Park, Wachovia Center, and Lincoln Financial Field.

Chic's Limousine and Transportation has established as its mission the provision of on-time service for customers in clean and comfortable vehicles driven by trustworthy and safety-conscious chauffeurs. While the service provided is luxurious, the company strives to make the prices affordable. The drivers are trained to be discreet and to always get customers to their destination on time.
