December 05, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -
Outdoor Store dot tv has announced that they have recently added a new mini dirt bike at low cost to their online store. The online retailer announced just recently that they have added the new mini dirt bike to their online inventory, just in time for the upcoming holiday shopping season.

The online store offers a number of categories for consumer products, including a number of battery powered kids' cars which also include electric skateboards and bikes. The newly added mini dirt bike is a battery powered toy that is designed for children ages three to five years old. It features a rechargeable battery that gives up to six hours of play time on a single charge. The bike itself only goes three miles per hour, making it safe for toddlers and the suggest maximum weight for the mini dirt bike is 44 pounds. It is considered to be the best in its category.

"It's a great battery operated toy for younger children," says Roy, a spokesperson for Outdoor Store dot tv. "It has a braking system that is easy for little ones to navigate and is made from high quality ABS plastic."

The company states that it is now offering a wide range of consumer products, including other dirt bikes and battery operated toys for children. The company does recommend that parents also purchase a helmet and other safety gear for their children who will be riding the mini dirt bike.

"You want your children to enjoy their new toy, and so do we," says Roy. "But in order to fully enjoy it, you have to be safe. We highly recommend that you never let your children ride a battery or fuel operated toy without wearing the appropriate safety equipment, such as a helmet, and elbow and knee pads, particularly for toddlers and younger children."

Outdoor Store dot tv states that they will be adding even more products to their online inventory for the upcoming holiday season. Customers can visit the site regularly to learn more about any new products that they will be adding and when. The company is 100 percent owned and operated from within the United States and says that they will ship their products to any location in the world. Their worldwide shipping service is available for all of their inventory and the company states that they offer a customer satisfaction money back guarantee, as well.

Their 30 day money back guarantee information can also be found on their official website. In addition to this, the mini dirt bike comes with a manufacturer's warranty. The warranty is limited and customers who are interested in learning more can do so on the official website of the bike's manufacturer. The new dirt bike is designed for younger children, but the company states that they also offer similar items for older children, teenagers and adults. In addition to dirt bikes and other battery operated devices, the company provides a wide range of drones, phone covers, garage necessities, sewing machines, pressure washing accessories, and much more.

Roy states that they strive to provide a plethora of products to meet a number of customer needs. Their latest product, which is the mini dirt bike, is just one in a long list of products that they are currently being added to their online inventory and the company states that customers who want to stay updated with their product list will want to visit them regularly. Roy says that they have only a limited number of each item available so customers will want to visit often to ensure that they still have that item that they want in stock. Outdoor Store dot tv states that they will continue to add new items until their inventory is filled and says that customers will find a number of new products between now and the official start of the holiday shopping season.

Customers are invited to browse the website at https://outdoorstore.tv/ for the online store to learn more about their products, their ordering and shipping guidelines and how to qualify for reduced shipping costs to anywhere in the world. The company states that they are always available to answer any questions that their customers may have. They invite their customers to visit them regularly between now and the holidays to find everything that they need for their holiday shopping list. The store offers a number of categories that make it easy for customers to find what they are searching for, as well as a list of frequently asked questions and other information.
