Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon Law Firm Opens Perdido Key Office

September 10, 2018

September 10, 2018 -
Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon, a full service law firm, announced the opening of a new location in Perdido Key. The ribbon cutting was held May 16, 2018, with a wide variety of attendants including employees from the firm and Chamber of Commerce. With the firm?s two other locations, the Perdido Key office will continue to pursue excellence in law involving real estate and personal injury.

Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon offers a wide variety of practice areas from real estate law to employment law to personal injury law. The firm?s business practice areas include employment law, construction law, real estate law, tax law and more. For individuals, the firm is able to offer everything from social security disability law to family law, estate planning to personal injury.

One of the firm?s major practice areas is personal injury law. The personal injury group is practiced in handling many types of injury cases including car accidents, trucking accidents, premises liability, slip and fall and more. The injury team of Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon is known for a high level of service to their clients, and ensuring clients are their top priority.

?Our law firm has always been dedicated to high standards. Our goal is to exceed our client?s expectations, one client at a time,? said Firm Administrator Mike Knowles. ?We develop relationships with our clients that I believe other law firms do not,? added attorney Shane Rowe.

Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon has been serving the residents of the Pensacola and panhandle area for over 100 years. In all of the firm?s locations, knowledgeable, trusted lawyers are ready and able to help the area?s residents with most other types of business and personal law practice areas.
