Acclaim Law Group, a law firm in San Diego, CA, is proud to announce that they have so far received 50 five star reviews from satisfied clients. These reviews are from various places in the Web, including Yahoo!, Google, Facebook, Avvo, and Yelp. The law firm points out that these rave reviews are well-deserved because they focus on helping victims of car accidents get the proper compensation that they deserve for their suffering. They point out that finding a reliable lawyer who can handle such cases is the first thing that car accident victims need to do in order to make sure they get reimbursed for their medical expenses.

Brett Geruntino, one of the personal injury attorneys in the firm, says, "Acclaim Law Group knows that any injury to you or a loved one is likely to turn your life upside down. We are committed to getting you compensated for your pain and inconvenience, while allowing you to focus on getting your life back to normal. Fortunately, the team at Acclaim Law Group are experienced in personal injury cases and able to interact with the insurance company on your behalf so you do not get fooled into accepting less than you deserve."

Meanwhile, the law firm has also pointed out that the initial consultation with a potential client is free of charge. This consultation would be used to gain important knowledge about a potential client's case and using that knowledge, the San Diego car accident attorney presents the realistic expectations on the kind of compensation that can be received. Furthermore, they have made the guarantee that they will not receive any fee from a client until he or she has been awarded a settlement. With this, it is no wonder that clients have given the law firm five star ratings.

For instance, Glory F. gave the firm five stars on Facebook and says, "Brett came highly recommended from my chiropractor after I suffered an injury and psychological trauma after a car accident. I was not at fault for the accident but felt as though the other party was not honest and I was not being reimbursed fairly. Brett was so easy to work with, caring and honest. He was very compassionate and attentive. He responded to any questions I had quickly and made sure to explain the whole process in easily understandable terms. Him and his team made the whole process easy and painless and in the end was able to get all of my medical bills paid for along with some money to pay for any future medical bills that may be needed. I highly recommend Acclaim Law Group for any of your legal needs."

On Avvo, Matt also gave the firm five stars and says, "I highly recommend Attorney Brett. He was professional, responsive, and knowledgeable with my personal injury claim.
