

Dojo Pro Significantly Reduce The Retail Price Of Their Popular Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Gi For Kids

June 24, 2015

June 24, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Customers can now save over $30 on premium quality Brazilian Jiu Jitsu uniforms for kids.

A couple of months ago, Dojo Pro announced the release of their premium new range of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu gi's on Amazon.com. This exclusive selection of martial arts uniforms have been especially designed for children. Available in a selection of sizes and colors, Dojo Pro has received a positive response from customers looking for value for money.

Now for a limited time the company is discounting their gis, giving more people an opportunity to test out these super-strong and ultra-comfortable uniforms.

There has been a massive surge in interest in martial arts among children and adolescence in recent years. Not only is Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu a great way to stay fit, it also teaches discipline and control; both of which are important developmental stages for children to grasp. With martial arts clubs well-established in the United States, there is a growing demand for quality uniforms.

Mr. Kraiger, CEO and co-founder of Dojo Pro describes some of the features of their gis that make them appealing: "Our gis are some of the toughest and most comfortable uniforms you'll find. They feature triple stitching, ensuring that these uniforms will not rip. We have incorporated tapered sleeves and leg cuffs, making it difficult for opponents to grab at the gi. We understand that no one wants to be training or competing in a hot, heavy uniform, so our gis are made from lightweight, quick-dry, 100% pre-shrunk cotton. You won't ever need to replace this gi until your child grows out of it!"

Currently the Dojo Pro Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu gis come in black, blue, and white. Soon the company will also be offering a pink gi, plus launching a new adult range. More information on these latest developments will be announced soon.

The current special pricing will only be available for a limited time. In addition to the savings on the cost of the gi, customers will also receive free shipping throughout the United States.
