June 30, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Arizona-based casual adventure gear company Huggabe (pronounced Hug-a-bEE) is proud to announce its latest product: the Be Spotted LED keychain light, a small, durable, water-resistant keychain accessory that provides vibrant light.

As one of Arizona's leading adventure gear companies, Huggabe is a prime source of casual adventure gear for outdoor enthusiasts. The company believes that everyone's idea of adventure is different, and therefore strives to provide products that will be useful, durable, reliable, and safe for everyone.

At Huggabe, every product undergoes an intensive research process in order to create a product that is useful to consumer's needs. The company's website, www.huggabe.com, carefully explains how its research and development plays an important role in the creation of its products. The Be Spotted LED keychain light is perfect for everyone?it can be used while walking or jogging and act as pedestrian safety lights in the dark. The keychain light also has a clip-on carabiner attachment, which means it can be put on almost anything: backpacks, zippers, pet collars, leashes, purses, and tent lines. The product is useful when it comes to the outdoors, and consumers would be able to benefit from its super vibrant LED light. For additional safety, the keychain light comes in different modes: steady on, slow flash, and quick flash.

The Be Spotted LED keychain light operates on a single button replaceable cell battery. Its battery life has been proved to last for 70-120 hours, depending on the mode used.

There have been a lot of positive responses to the Be Spotted LED keychain light. On its Amazon page, the Huggabe product has accumulated over 300 positive reviews, and currently holds a rating of 4.7 out of 5 stars. Most of the customers have expressed satisfaction towards the product, especially when used while walking the dog and dog running. Amazon customer Mellowknee says "it's super bright for a tiny thing," before leaving a 5-star rating on the Amazon website. Here is the customer's full review:

"It's a super-happy green light that flashes BRIGHTLY and makes certain you're noticed. It's seriously small, but packs a punch in brightness! This little blinking light has so many uses. Once, I put it on my keychain, I found reasons to use it all the time. I also had one attached to each of our backpacks during a hike to keep everyone in sight. Another time, I clipped it to my son as he played in the park to make it easier to keep an eye on him. Excellent customer service, as well. Honestly. I'll definitely order from them again. And again!"

With a long list of products and goods for an outdoors-seeker or adventurer, Huggabe plans on creating more products that are safe and useful for everyone.
