The Roth Firm Publishes Post On The Link Between PTSD And Car Accidents

October 05, 2018

October 05, 2018 -

The Roth Firm, a personal injury law firm in Atlanta, GA, has announced that they have published on their site, an article that examines the link between motor vehicle accidents and post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). In the blog post titled, "Is There A Link Between Car Accidents And PTSD?" it is shown that while majority of victims of such accidents have zero symptoms of lingering stress, some people may develop major depression, anxiety disorders, and PTSD.

James M. Roth, managing partner at the firm, says, "If you, or someone you care about, has been injured in a severe Car Accident and is experiencing symptoms of PTSD, then contact The Roth Firm immediately. Our effective team of Personal Injury Attorneys will make sure you are compensated for the physical and emotional stress that has been inflicted on you."

The Roth Firm is focused on personal injury litigation, particularly on providing representation for those who have been injured as a result of carelessness, negligence, intentional misconduct, or recklessness. They provide representation for victims or the estates of victims who have died or have been seriously injured in trucking accidents, car wrecks, dangerous premises, slip and falls, and defective product design or maintenance.

As can be seen in the article at https://www.rothlawyer.com/blog/is-there-a-link-between-car-accidents-and-ptsd, James M. Roth points out that there is indeed a link between car accidents and PTSD and those who do experience PTSD as a result of a motor vehicle accident may want to consult with them on how compensation can be obtained. As proof of the quality of the service they are able provide, James points with pride to the large number of positive reviews that have been receiving. In Google, they have an overall rating of 4.6 stars out of five after more than 160 reviews.

For instance, Kat P., who gave the firm a five star rating, says, "I can't say enough about this firm. My husband and I had used another attorney until I was referred to The Roth Firm. Jim was our attorney and he went above and beyond to make sure our family received every penny we could. His staff is very friendly and professional as well. Even though we are happy to have all of this year behind us and the settlement completed, we will miss Jim and his Firm. I highly recommend anyone who needs an attorney that will go to bat for you, that you consider this firm. They won't disappoint. Thank you Jim for ALL that you have done for our family. We seriously couldn't have gone through this without you."

Danita H. also gave the firm five stars. She says, "My experience with the Roth Firm was truly stellar. The Roth Firm worked seamlessly with my Medical Provider and neither ever "dropped the ball" while handling my case. I received courtesy status calls from the firm (without even asking). The customer service was excellent and the entire process was expedient yet thorough. Hopefully I won't get injured again, but if you or someone you know does, make it easy on yourself, call the Roth Firm."

Motor vehicle accidents have been found to cause injury to thousands of people each year. However, the law firm wants to point out that it is only with the assistance of a car accident attorney that victims would be able to get the compensation they deserve. The Roth Firm can make sure that insurance companies do not take advantage of car accident victims.

Meanwhile, because trucks are large motor vehicles and often carry heavy loads, they can cause devastating damage and injury, and possibly even death. The firm points out that victims themselves or relatives of victims of truck accidents due to negligent drivers can go to them to be able to pursue the compensation that they deserve.

James M. Roth is managing partner of The Roth Firm. After obtaining his bachelor's degree with honors, he worked in public service for a year, and then he enrolled at the Samford University Cumberland School of Law where he won the Judge James O. Haley trial competition after participating in several mock trial competitions. He graduated with a Juris Doctorate and became an in-house trial attorney for State Farm Insurance. He handled cases ranging from personal injury car accidents to multi-defendant liability litigation cases. Later, he joined other insurance carriers, working as in-house trial lawyer. The Roth Firm was later established in September 2006. James is a member of various local and national bar associations, including the Georgia Trial Lawyers Association, Atlanta Bar Association, and the Georgia Personal Injury Association.
