Yoga Jaci, a Cape Coral, Florida based distributor of yoga towels and yoga mat bags is happy to announce the first year anniversary of its best-selling yoga mat bag. Boasting a five-star review on Amazon, the yoga mat bag, which features many attributes not found in other similar products, has proven to be a successful addition to the product line of the company from the moment of its debut.

"We believe this is the most versatile yoga mat bag on the market today," says Betty Stanley, spokesperson for Yoga Jaci. "We call it the One Perfect Yoga Mat Bag because it does so much and looks so great."

At 27.5 inches long, with a 6.5 inch diameter, the Yoga Jaci yoga mat carrier is designed to fit a standard size yoga mat up to 26.5 inches wide and 5.5 inches in diameter when rolled up, as well as being spacious enough to fit additional items inside, such as a hand towel, mat towel, strap or block, and a bottle of mat cleaner.

It features three pockets for a neat and organized approach to carrying yoga essentials. An inside zippered pocket holds small items such as keys and/or a wallet. On the outside is a built in zippered pocket and spacious flap-front, cargo pocket with a handsome strap and snap closure. Both pockets are roomy enough to carry other necessary items such as ID, smartphone (can accommodate the large-size phone), earbuds or headphone, headband, Kindle or book, socks and water bottle.

According to a verified Amazon customer, "I love this bag! I've been looking for one that's sturdy, has multiple pockets, and is large enough to fit my yoga mat and yoga towel without having to jam it into the bag. It's perfect. I also love that the strap is thick and has a padded portion, making it much more comfortable than others I've seen."

The Yoga Jaci yoga mat carrier is made of water-resistant canvas that features three distinctive and elegant print designs. The undulating, stylized ocean waves in the Ocean Wave pattern is reminiscent of famous Asian art. This pattern comes in classic navy blue and white. For a more contemporary feel, the Retro Zig Zag print has a stripe pattern in neutral colors of rust and green. Its accented by brown faux leather. The Sunny Mandala design is in bold colors of pink, orange, gray, and blue, depicting upbeat sunbursts. Each pattern is designed to complement the popular, on-trend yoga attire of today for a functional and fun fashion statement.

"One of the reasons the Yoga Jaci yoga mat bag is such a popular bag are the ventilation eyelets or air vents incorporated into this bag," says Stanley. "These vents keep air flowing freely through the bag to prevent the build-up of bacteria making it more hygienic and able to inhibit odors. Other yoga mat carriers don't have this feature."

The Yoga Jaci yoga mat bag also features an adjustable crossbody strap with a pad for maximum comfort and to help prevent shoulder pain. The bag's long, durable zipper opens and closes smoothly and features two zipper heads, making getting the yoga mat out easier. The fabric is constructed of an outer layer of canvas with an inner layer of polyester to make it especially comfortable against the body while carrying. It is easy to care for?machine washable on a gentle cycle, then air-dry to prevent shrinking and dye-bleed. The cylindrical design keeps the mat firmly rolled, which helps to extend the lifetime of the mat.

The cylindrical shape and soft body of the bag means the Yoga Jaci yoga mat bag is also great for taking on yoga retreats or while traveling. It is lightweight enough for carrying comfortably through the airport and fits easily under the seat or in the overhead compartment. "I have traveled on a plane with this bag. It's very comfortable, very light and easily fits in the overhead compartment without taking up a lot of space," says Myriam J. in her online review of the product.

"We've been excited to see how well the Yoga Jaci yoga mat carrier has been received by yoga enthusiasts," says Betty Stanley. "We have so much faith that customers will love this product that we offer a 100% two-year no-risk, no-nonsense money-back guarantee."

Yoga Jaci distributes yoga towels, yoga mat towels and yoga mat bags exclusively on Amazon. The company is headquartered in Cape Coral, Florida and serves a global market.
