A new product from Amazon merchant Adfilic has just arrived in the marketplace and it is one of the most stylish must-have gadget accessories you have to have. The Adfilic Skateboard Bluetooth speakers is designed for everyone who loves listening to music on a hands-free mode and enjoys a fun, compact-sized gadget that matches their adventurous lifestyle. It is said to raise the bar for all Bluetooth speakers combining style and functionality in one.

Adfilic Skateboard Bluetooth speakers was launched into the market early 3rd quarter this year with a special discount code. The product comes in very handy. It is easy to handle because of its small size, yet packs a powerful crystal clear sound. It also has a built-in handsfree speakerphone feature, which allows you to take important calls without disconnecting your mobile phone from the speakers. This makes it ideal for those who are always on the road.

Wireless technologies like Bluetooth gives users more freedom of movement when using their gadgets. Many have switched to using Bluetooth enabled devices especially when used with apps related to playing music. Gone are the days of having to deal with wires getting tangled up and crispy due to age. The wireless technology like that of Bluetooth connection provides a worry-free experience for everyone.

Adiflic has previously launched a similarly powerful set of portable Bluetooth speakers last year. But what sets apart this Bluetooth speakers from its predecessor is that this brand new model comes in a stylish compact skateboard design available in colors black, blue, pink, red and white. It produces excellent audio, which is rare for a small-sized speaker making it a value worth it product to purchase for both men and women. This speaker is also compatible with popular smartphone brands.

Upon launch, the company decided to give out a huge 25% discount for all Skateboard Bluetooth speakers when purchased on Amazon. The coupon code WEGWFJ2N can be used upon checkout to avail the discount. There are already a lot of people looking for Bluetooth devices to be paired with their smartphones and music players that Adfilic fears there might not be enough Skateboard Scooter Bluetooth Speakers in stock.
