Calgary, AB Country Hills Storage opened its newest self-storage units in Calgary, AB, over the weekend. Located less than two miles from the town's boardwalk, they are in an ideal location for storing seasonal gear and more.

The new Country Hills Storage 11575 14 St NE, Calgary, AB T3K 5Y7 offers more than 1,300 spaces, from indoor, climate-controlled units to convenient drive-up outdoor storage.

"This is a modern self-storage location in a growing, attractive area for people," Founder Dale Norlin said of the company's fourth location in town. "This is a great facility for customers who have high standards."

Country Hills Storage and its construction partner built the handsome building from the ground up with the goal of enhancing the neighborhood. It offers a tan exterior, traditional eaves, and Country Hills Storage Orange awnings that replicate classic Bermuda shutters popular in the area.

Calgary, AB is experiencing double-digit population growth, and residents in the area are feeling the squeeze with slower commutes every year. Thankfully, Country Hills Storage always strives to locate its facilities where they are easy to access, and this new spot is no exception. It is conveniently located at 11575 14 St NE, Calgary, AB T3K 5Y7.

Country Hills Storage is constantly working to serve a growing need in the area. In fact, it opened another brand new location nearby a year ago as Country Hills Storage.

"Calgary, AB is an exciting market for us," said Dale Norlin, a Country Hills Storage executive. "We're always looking for new opportunities to bring the best self-storage options to customers in more neighborhoods."
