London, UK ? In today?s volatile economy, entrepreneurs who wish to have the flexibility and freedom of working for themselves are finding it harder than ever before. Most new business enterprise cost tens of thousands of dollars to get started. For those searching for a way to work for themselves, from the comfort of their home, with their laptop as the only tool necessary to get started, the Internet Lifestyle Network (ILN) may be the answer.

This online business and entrepreneurial community offers both those without business experience or seasoned professions with online strategies that translate into any business the ability to ramp up existing marketing strategies.

Their unique system allows anyone interested in earning an income from home the opportunity to turn a profit within the first 24 hours after sign up. To get started, new affiliates invest in the Apprentice Membership, which offers training, unlimited customizable blogs, daily promotional strategies and courses such as ?DreamScaping,? ?The Famous 8-Figure Million Dollar Day? and ?How to Sell By Getting Into Someone?s Heart.? Affiliates can join advanced courses, through the Network?s University, which offer training in social media marketing, personal development and the foundations for building a successful online and offline business.

This is a four-level affiliate program, which is considered one of the most lucrative opportunities in the industry. Weekly commissions are paid on personally referred sales, with professional members earning on the referred sales of their team down to four levels. The Network provides a Viral 5 Lifestyle Formula that teaches the specifics of how to build a resilient team to earn long-lasting and cumulative commissions.

In addition, each member receives access to the Private ILN Facebook Community. This unique community offers new and existing members a chance to recognize the achievements of other members as well as offer suggestions and ideas.

There is also a unique Private Vacation Club available to affiliates. This club offers members the best rates on travel destinations around the world as well as the ability on earning commissions on referrals.

Anyone interested in learning more about the network is invited to Join the Free Facebook Group by clicking on this link.
