you both time and money in the long run. Atty. Cortright says, "Many people find themselves, at some point in their lives, drowning in debt and looking for a way to get back on even ground. Bankruptcy will wipe out your debt and give you a completely fresh start."

The website states that issues such as creditor phone calls, wage garnishments, bank levies, car repossessions, home foreclosures, and law suits can be stopped when working with his office. "Come in for the free consultation," says the representative. "Explore your options and figure out if filing for bankruptcy is an option that is right for you."

His office staff is also very professional and helpful. Do not hesitate to call and get help." The website for Mr. Cortright further explains to potential clients the differences between filing for Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 Bankruptcy. It states that Chapter 7 is the best option for average to low income earners who are having difficulty with unsecured debt such as credit cards and medical bills. Further, the representative for Mr. Cortright says, "It is true that with the majority of people, you will be able to keep all of your assets with filing Chapter 7." It's an option that a lot of clients eventually decide on with Mr. Cortright's help.

The website says that Chapter 13 is the recommended option for average to high income inners. "It is a restructuring plan which establishes a repayment plan on your debt. Most debtors pay back between 10%-100% of their debt." Debt is more often than not paid interest free with only one payment per month. And unlike Chapter 7, Chapter 13 is the better option if someone is behind on car, house, or HOA payments.

"So many of his clients have trust in him and his team, and have moved beyond their financial debt."
