

Crowe Building Announces Custom Home Building Services in Sarasota FL

October 30, 2018

October 30, 2018 -
Crowe Building, a name synonymous with luxurious, custom home building services announces to carry out custom home building services in Sarasota, located in the southwestern coast of Florida.

Crowe Building is a registered and licensed in Sarasota custom home builder service, with more than 25 years? experience in the field. The CEO of Crowe Building, Michael Crowe, started his apprenticeship in the carpentry field by actually working on constructing, renovating, and remodeling homes, and his is now a well-known licensed contractor and custom home building service found in the region.

For the longevity and safety of construction projects in Sarasota, contractors must be well equipped and experienced in working in a coastal environment. Many areas of Sarasota such as; Bird Key, Longboat Key, Casey Key, and Lido Key are located in flood zones. Building in these areas requires special construction techniques to protect homes from flooding.

Michael Crowe, the founder and CEO of Crowe Buildings says, "I've built custom homes in Massachusetts, Georgia and Florida. I'm especially happy to announce that Crowe Building can build custom designed homes in Sarasota Florida, including the Islands. Building custom homes in Florida requires specialized knowledge of not only building codes but also of hurricane standards and construction methods to stand up the possibility of high winds and water,? he emphasized. Mr. Crowe added, "There are many custom home builders in Sarasota, I recommend anyone interested in designing and building a custom home to verify the credentials and experience of any general contractor."

About Crowe Building

Crowe Building is a registered and licensed custom home building service, located in Sarasota, with more than 25 years? experience in the field. The CEO of Crowe Building, Michael Crowe, started his apprenticeship in the carpentry field by actually working on constructing, renovating, and remodeling homes and his is now a well-known custom home building service found in the region.

His experience started out back in the early 1990?s building in coastal New England (Cape Cod). New England, with its severe weather such as the infamous Nor?easter, caused many a building to fail and leak because of the intense winds and rain. He learned the importance early, on how critical it is to build a home fit to withstand the weather that nature can dish out.
