CharterBus.com, based in NJ, wants to emphasize that chartering a bus is a great way to get to a sporting event in Atlanta, GA. This is because by going with a group one can save money on tickets to games. Also, by chartering a bus, everyone can get to and from the stadium safely and together, without the usual problems of parking and carpooling.

Joe Lucci from CharterBus.com says, "Chartering a bus is the way to enjoy going to a sports event in Atlanta, which is home to major sports franchises like the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Hawks, and Atlanta Falcons. We make traveling even easier for you because with our online automated quote system, it's easy to set up a bus charter rental to Atlanta. Tell us when you want to go and what you'd like to see and do. We'll contact some of the top charter bus providers in the Atlanta area and provide you with a variety of choices, often within 10 minutes."

CharterBus.com aims to be the top online marketplace in the charter bus industry. They point out that their service sprung from the realization that chartering a mini-bus, motor coach or party bus has been quite of a challenge for many consumers. Locating the right company with the right vehicle can be difficult because of the large number of available vendors and vehicles to choose from. Furthermore, consumers may find that it takes them hours to call several bus companies and then compare the vehicles offered, and finally negotiate the price.

Joe Lucci explains, "At CharterBus.com, we bring together over 3,000 bus charter companies nationwide into one place. Your charter details will be viewed by over 5 competing bus companies, or as many as 50 or 60 depending on your area. In order to be competitive, bus companies have to give you their best, fairist price."

One of the sports events in Atlanta that sports fans can go to is the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, which has been schedule to start at noon ET on Saturday, December 29, 2018 in the Mercedes-Benz Stadium. The game to be played on December 29 will the first of New Year's Six bowl game played that day. It will lead into the College Football Playoff Semifinals at the Capital One Orange Bowl and Goodyear Cotton Bowl on ESPN.

The 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl will host top nationally ranked teams as designated by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee. Those who plan to watch the games in Atlanta can already buy their tickets as these have been made available to the general public as early as July. It may also be a good idea to charter a bus as early as possible as the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl has been very popular, drawing more than 35.8 million viewers for its games in the College Football Playoff era. Meanwhile, the Bowl has had more than 2.95 million fans attending the games for the past 50 years, with 19 out of its 21 contests having sold out. The Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl is one of the New Year's Six Bowls chosen to host the College Football Playoff. This Bowl has gained the reputation of being one of the most competitive bowls in the country because 54 percent of its games have been decided by a touchdown or even less.

It should be noted that collegiate sports in Atlanta is serious business. The "big games" in college football in Atlanta usually happen during the fall season. Furthermore, Atlanta hosts games that are of nationwide interest, especially those that are participated in by Atlanta's hometown teams. For instance, at Georgia State University, the GSU Panthers football team have been in the limelight. At Georgia Tech, fans can watch a football game at the Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Aside from sports, Atlanta has many other attractions as well. For instance, visitors can go to the Atlanta History Center for the world's biggest collection of Civil War Memorabilia. And, of course, there is the Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site and the Margaret Mitchell House, where the author wrote "Gone with the Wind". Then there is the High Museum, the Fox Theatre, and the Atlanta Opera, the Alliance Theater, and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. And for parks and outdoor activities, the city has almost 350 city parks and the Nearby Stone Mountain, which is a favorite of both locals and visitors.
