January 04, 2019 -

Pensacola, Florida based Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon is pleased to announce that Rachel Sheffield has joined their Personal Injury Group as an associate attorney. Rachel is a double Gator, having earned her bachelor's degree magna cum laude in Business Administration, along with her Juris Doctorate cum laude from the University of Florida.

Rachel grew up in Macon, Georgia, until her family moved to Panama City Beach, Florida in May of 2009. Rachel worked at her family owned radio station until she attended the University of Florida. While in law school, Rachel received the Fall 2016 Book Award for Trial Practice and the Fall 2017 Book Award for International Commercial Arbitration and Moot. Rachel also became a member of the Florida Moot Court Team, where she was selected to compete in the ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition in Boston, Massachusetts.

As a third-year law student, Rachel was one of four law students selected to compete in the International Chamber of Commerce Vis Pre-Moot in Paris, France, where she and her team placed first in the competition. Rachel also competed on behalf of the University of Florida in the William C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in Vienna, Austria. These experiences led Rachel to pursue a career in litigation at ESC.

Rachel will become a part of the ESC Personal Injury Group who provides assistance to those who have been injured due to someone else's negligence. The group is experienced in a wide variety of injury cases including car accidents, truck accidents, premises liability, social security disability and more.

The quality and skill level of Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon is definitely displayed in a vast number of highly-positive reviews, of which there are more than 30, 5 out of 5 star ratings on Facebook alone. Ahnna Paparella says on Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon's Facebook page, "I was so impressed with the way Ben Shell handled my case. I received far more than I was expecting because he did his due diligence and made sure that I was properly compensated for my injuries. He stayed in contact with me throughout the whole process and made sure to keep me updated and informed. I would recommend this firm and Benjamin Shell to anyone!"

On Yelp, yet another satisfied customer, Charles B. said, "Emmanuel, Sheppard, & Condon has been taking care of our business for several years now. We use them for our contract work, but their firm handles a wide variety of legal tasks, including personal injury law. If you're looking for a friendly firm that really cares about you, then check out 'em out."

Testimonials on their website display the vast amount of successful cases the company has dealt with, one of which from Lottie G. says "Thank you so very much for changing the lives of myself and my child. I appreciate your kindness and the integrity you used during my case. You and your staff are true professionals and very caring and understanding at the same time. I will definitely tell everyone how great you all are. Thanks so much again."

Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon's website features an information filled page about "How a Personal Injury Case Works", this page goes through the steps of preparing for a case in a step by step way, it makes it easy for anyone to understand. Their guide greatly reduces the chance of a client performing an action during the trial that could make the difference of winning or losing the case. Simple things like making a list of witnesses are explained here. Shane Rowe says that, "it's often the little things like not being able to question every witness that make a big difference to a trial. Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon provide information to help clients minimize the risk of that happening. Our experts then have the highest chance possible of winning the case."
