Livnfresh has released their latest line of cardigans for this winter. Shoppers can choose from a range of new cardigans that will help them stay warm and cozy while still being fashionable during the cold winter months.

The new cardigans are available in black and can be bought in six different sizes, including Small, Medium, Large, 2X-Large, and 3X-Large. Right now the cardigans are available for a price of under $40, so it is one of the best bargains shoppers can get for the fall-winter season, Livnfresh says.

Livnfresh Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan: This cardigan has a soft, comfortable texture that's sure to make anyone cozy enough to get out there during the cold weather. It is perfect for layering, as it is a nice piece to throw over almost anything. This seems to be the secret to rocking any cardigan: pick an outfit and just add an extra layer of flair by wearing a cardigan.

The cardigan has cover stitch details and an angled front hem. It's sure to make a fine addition to anyone's fall season collection.

Happy Camper Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan: Going camping for the holidays means that the reader lives someplace warm. A cardigan can keep those pesky mosquitoes away from the arms and most of the body, so a late night camping trip can still be enjoyed. The family can gather around a nice bonfire in the evening, and the Happy Camper Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan will be there to keep the wearer comfortable.

Michigan D Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan: This cardigan is great for those who love the beautiful state of Michigan and want to show it off. Just like the other cardigans in this collection, the Michigan D Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan is soft and perfect for layering. It is made with ringspun combed cotton, polyester, and rayon. It is definitely something worth having in the closet this season.

Great Lakes Girl Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan: Whether it's a boat trip or a simple night out with the family, this smooth cardigan is awesome for any occasion. It's a nice piece that can be added to a dress, or even something more casual. Just like the other cardigans in this collection, it is made with polyester, ringspun combed cotton, and rayon.

Lake Life Anchor Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan. At a price of less than $40, it's easy to get the most fashionable bargains. Livnfresh offers the Lake Life Anchor Women's Hooded Open Front Lightweight Cardigan for those who want to enjoy the cold season while looking fabulous. It is simple yet it gives a bold statement.
