

Authentic Maori Kapa Haka Performing Arts Service Re-brands As The Haka Experience

November 16, 2018

November 16, 2018 -
Taking haka to the world, the newly branded authentic Maori Kapa Haka performing arts service The Haka Experience has been launched.

?As one of the sons of Dr. Ngapo Wehi and Pimia Wehi, the founders of Pounamu Performing Arts, I have taken the teachings, values and knowledge bestowed in me by my late parents to guide me and continue our strong M?ori traditions,? says Tapeta Wehi, director of The Haka Experience.

With the new brand - The Haka Experience, comes a range of exciting and authentic performing arts services such as:

Haka Workshops, aimed at building up teams and organizations through the use of Kapa Haka.

Haka Powhiri, aimed at welcoming guests & delegates to New Zealand or to workplaces, events or functions.

And the ever-popular Haka Performances, which provide a full authentic cultural experience for events and functions throughout the world.

All of these services can be completely customized to suit specific events or functions. With more information and details on what to expect through their promotional videos.

The Haka Experience aims to continue to promoting rich Maori heritage and values that have seen Pounamu Performing Arts become one of the foremost experts in Authentic M?ori Performances & Kapa Haka today. ?We aim to only get better as we grow stronger and continue to perform and deliver gifts of M?ori entertainment to audiences all over the world,? says Tapeta. ?Our vision - Take Haka to the World.?

The new brand provides exciting opportunities both within New Zealand and internationally. The Haka Experience has already performed for large widely recognized brands and companies such as New Zealand Tourism, Olympus, Americas Cup and many more.

Bookings for The Haka Experience can be made and more information is available by visiting their website.
