

Retirement Living Community In Sandy Springs Announces Completion Of Remodeling And Improvements

November 27, 2018

November 27, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Hammond Glen Retirement Community, based in Sandy Springs, GA, is pleased to announce the completion of extensive remodeling and improvements designed to make the retirement living community more modern, open, warm, and inviting. The Sandy Springs retirement community is located just north of Atlanta. Residents get to benefit from the peaceful environment of the country, while remaining close to the conveniences offered by the city.

Sarah Peters from Hammond Glen Retirement Community says, "The updates and improvements were a natural next step for the retirement community. Hammond Glen has always boasted a robust enrichment program, resort-like amenities, spacious units, and strategic placement near top hospitals and entertainment. These new renovations, which include several interior and exterior transformations, will ensure that Hammond Glen continues to be the ideal setting for modern seniors to call home."

Sarah explains that the updates made to the interior and exterior of Hammond Glen Retirement Community have been extensive. These include the provision of new pavers and stained concrete to provide safe and attractive walking areas for seniors and friends; improvements to the landscaping at the front of the building to provide a warm and inviting entrance; redesign of the first floor to comply with the wide-ranging tastes of residents; replacement of all the flooring on the main floor to provide a clean modern feel; total remodeling of the dining room; complete remodeling of the salon to provide residents with the feel of having made a real trip to the spa; and changes to many apartment units, with the provision of new cabinets, stainless steel appliances, improved granite countertops, and tiled showers in some units.

Sarah explains that Hammond Glen is a retirement living community made up of 194 units and is located close to a number of top restaurants, hospitals, theaters, and museums in Sandy Springs. The community provides independent living accommodations as well as options for assisted living. Hammond Glen is a unique resort-style kind of retirement living with its on-site cafe, attractive lanai, and calendar for social, physical and spiritual activities for residents. Sarah adds, "Those interested can learn more on our YouTube channel."

Hammond Glen Retirement Community offers a number of services designed to help seniors. For instance, they offer the Easy-Move Program to lessen the stress that seniors are subjected to when moving. The staff are available to assist the seniors in various matters, such as real estate, funding, veteran assistance, moving professionals, and more.

The community also provides a 24/7 Dining Experience to residents. Aside from dining being made available all-day, seniors also get to enjoy gourmet food prepared by the Executive Chef and other professionals using the freshest ingredients.

They also provide on-site physical therapy and caregiving services whenever these are required by some residents. They can also offer assistance with personal hygiene, medication management, and other daily living tasks. Each resident may also become part of the safety pendant program for even more peace of mind.

The community also offers the Sunshine Travel Program, which offers the best travel deal for Sunshine residents. Seniors can take a vacation to any of the Sunshine communities, and they can stay for free in a fellow Sunshine community's guest suite. Complimentary meals are also provided. And in between sightseeing and community activities, there's always plenty to do for those who take part in the travel program.

Furthermore, residents need not miss their favorite pets as dogs and cats are allowed in the community. Also, the community is completely smoke-free to make sure that residents are able to breathe easily.

The retirement living community is managed by Sunshine Retirement Living, which is a family-owned and patient-centered company. The company manages almost two dozen retirement communities throughout the U.S. By offering a comprehensive range of services in their assisted living, independent living, and memory care communities, the company strives to promote independence and confidence in the senior residents.

Those who need more information can visit the company website or contact them by phone.

###

For more information about Hammond Glen Retirement Community, contact the company here: Hammond Glen Retirement Community Sarah Peters (541) 323-5280 sarah.peters@sunshineret.com 335 Hammond Drive, Sandy Springs, GA 30328

Hammond Glen Retirement Community

Immerse yourself in the Hammond Glen atmosphere, and you will find your days full of fun and friends. Located in the heart of Sandy Springs, you can enjoy the peaceful feel of the country and still take advantage of all of the local conveniences.

Website: <https://www.sunshineretirementliving.com/sandy-springs-retirement-living/>

Email: sarah.peters@sunshineret.com

Phone: (541) 323-5280

Powered by PressAdvantage.com