ARLINGTON, Virginia ? Dan Stuebs, Political Director of the American Police Officers Alliance, issued the following statement on Pete Stauber's (R) victory in Minnesota's 8th Congressional District against Joe Radinovich (D).

?We are thrilled about Pete's decisive win for Minnesota's 8th Congressional District. Stauber is a much-needed voice in Congress to ensure America's law enforcement officers have the resources they need to fight crime,? said Stuebs. ?Our organization is thrilled to have supported other political organizations that helped drive Stauber to victory. We look forward to having another former law enforcement officer in the ranks of Congress come January.?

Stauber had 50.7% of the votes, Radinovich had 45.2% and Skip Sandman (I) had 4.1%.
