The company owner, Tony Arora, is committed to serving as many customers as he can possibly reach.

"Gifts have a great importance. They show our appreciation for someone. Often times, it is not just the gift but the thought and effort behind getting a gift that can be of significance," stated Tony.

As we approach Christmas, Tony wanted to share a beautiful short story by an unknown author that he had come across and which puts into perspective the relevance of a Christmas gift:

On a remote island in the South Sea, a student listened attentively to his teacher's Christmas story, which she had just explained: "The gifts of Christmas are to remind us of the love of God. With their gifts, people express their love for one another. And that they want to live together in peace."

The day before Christmas, the boy gave his teacher a shell of exceptional beauty. Never before had she seen anything more beautiful washed up by the sea.

She asked her student where he had found such a precious beautiful shell.

The boy explained that there was only one place on the other side of the island where one could occasionally find such a shell. About 20 kilometers away is a small hidden bay, where shells of this kind are sometimes washed ashore.

"It is simply magical," said the teacher. "I will keep it all my life and will never be able to forget you. But you shouldn't go so far just to give me a present."

With shining eyes the boy said: "The long way is part of the gift."

There is a history behind the tradition of Christmas gifts. Today, one does not need to walk a long distance for finding a gift. But one can put effort in finding a creatively different kind of a present that will stand apart and leave a special memory with the loved one receiving the gift.

GJ Boon has a large collection of gifts and novelty items that could make the perfect Christmas present. People wanting to make that special effort in finding something different are encouraged to visit the company's online shop under the link given above.
