June 26, 2015 -
Adfilic, an Amazon merchant selling electronics and gadgets, introduces a brandnew model of Bluetooth spea ker which is in the shape of a skateboard. Adfilic aims to provide their consumers with another option when it comes to portable speakers. With the increasing need for small electronics, the release of the new Adfilic skat eboard speaker is timely.

A study shows that the global Bluetooth speaker market will be worth a staggering $7B by 2019. The Reports nReports.com research also states that the growth rate of the Bluetooth speaker market is predicted to be 38. 73% from the 5-year forecast period of 2014-2015.

Big companies including Bose, Sony, Sennheiser Electronic, Samsung, Apple, Phillips, and Panasonic That? s why it is not surprising to see that there are hundreds of portable speakers today. However, there are also a lot of defective and inferior products that consumers should be wary about.

Recently, Apple gives out a rare voluntary recall order for the new Beats Pill XL Bluetooth speaker. The comp any determined that the speaker?s battery have might overheat and poses a fire safety risk. As stated by the United States Consumer Product?Safety Commission, the recall is due to ?eight reports of incidents of the speakers overheating, including one with a burn to a consumer?s finger and one with damage to a consumer?s desk.?

The large number of funding that companies put into R&D for Bluetooth portable speakers resulted to a large number of models available in the market today. Adfilic joins the bandwagon with a unique model of their own - the skateboard Bluetooth speaker. This new design might draw crowds of younger people due to the appealing aesthetics of the speaker.

The skateboard Bluetooth speaker is a new product on Adfilic?s line of consumer electronics and gadgets. The new addition will give consumers more options when choosing what portable speaker best suits their preferences.
