December 06, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Todd Vanstone of Quinte Towing and Recovery is happy to announce the launch of their new Facebook page, providing tips to help drivers keep their car safely on the road this winter. Quinte Towing and Recovery has been serving the local community of Bellville for over 35 years, assisting residents when their car breaks down or gets stuck in a ditch. They also assist with towing during accidents.

When approached about this announcement, Todd Vanstone shared this comment, "We are in the business of towing, so, you'd think it would be in our best interest to not share helpful advice about avoiding accidents or sliding into ditches. Nothing could be further from the truth. This is the community in which we live and work - the people we are often helping are our neighbours. We want the residents in our community to be safe. Plain and simple."

Quinte Towing and Recovery Ltd. is a local business that strives to help residents of Bellville and beyond when they are in need. The recovery agents understand that getting in an accident or ending up in a ditch is already a highly-stressful situation. They dedicate themselves to making the assistance process painless and completely stress-free. To learn more, visit their website: <https://quinte-towing-and-recovery-ltd.business.site/>.

Darlene, a Bellville resident, shared this 5-star review on YellowPages.com, "This Towing Company is Amazing they are Clean courteous and on time so your not waiting longer then a few minutes the owners gave me my car back for half the bill when I explained my situation kudos to this company needs to be Belleville's top Tower."

This Bellville towing and roadside assistance company is available 24 hours a day, every day, all year long. Accidents and breakdowns don't take a holiday, so Quinte Towing and Recovery doesn't take a holiday either. They are also a trusted contractor for Belleville City Police and have secured storage facilities that are under constant surveillance.

An anonymous customer left this shining review online, "Can't say enough good things about Quinte Towing. I would give them more stars if I could. They were fast and courteous. In addition the operator was a mechanic who even advocated for me at the garage and clearly had a positive working relationship at the local Ford dealership. Thanks so much for all your help!?"

Quinte Towing and Recovery offers a variety of towing and roadside assistance services including flatbed towing, motorcycle carriers, winching service, junk car removal, and emergency roadside assistance. They also offer tips and tricks on their Facebook page to help drivers prepare for unsafe driving conditions. Their Facebook page can be visited here: <https://www.facebook.com/QuinteTowing>.

Tina Whyte shared this 5-star review on the Quinte Towing and Recovery Facebook page after her experience with the company, "Polite, friendly, fast service. The fellow I dealt with this afternoon is a stand up guy who reminds me that there are decent people left on this earth. From the time I called my van and I were home within an hour!?"

The emergency roadside assistance services offered by Quinte Towing include tire change and repair, jump start and battery charge, lock-outs, and also oil or fuel solutions. Though the name of their business covers towing and recovery services, they want to encourage drivers to contact them for any roadside emergency needs - they will strive to find a way to help even if they can't.

Chris Greene was stuck in a ditch and had called another tow service. After waiting for 3 hours he decided to call Quinte they arrived within 30 minutes and afterwards, he left this review, "It was snowing and cold and I had slid into a ditch on the icy roads. I called a different tow company, I can't even remember their name now. They said they would be out in about an hour and then wouldn't take my calls when I called for an update. I finally called Quinte and they showed up in 30 minutes and got my car out. The driver even followed behind me until I got off the icy road. The difference in experience is remarkable and I will never call anyone other than Quinte again."
