Auto Locksmith Company Reaches the 200 Mark in Google Reviews

December 10, 2018

MINNEAPOLIS, MN - December 10, 2018 -
The Key Guys recently reached the coveted 200 reviews mark in their Google Map business page. As of this writing, they have a total of 205 reviews from various satisfied customers, with an average rating of 4.9 out of 5 stars. The auto locksmith company is based in Minneapolis, Minnesota and specializes in the repair and replacement of car keys. Aside from serving individual car owners, The Key Guys also serve business clients like auto repair businesses, auto rental agencies, and car dealerships in and around the Twin Cities area.

?We are grateful for the support and the positive reviews from our clients. We would have never reached this milestone if not for them. They really are the key to our business,? said Bryan Nystrom, the owner of The Key Guys. The reviews about the company came from the general public and auto repair shops they deal with regularly. According to Nystrom, the fact that their clients took the time in submitting the reviews is a testament of the level of customer service the company espouses in each and every job.

One of the reviews on Google came from Erik Coleman, he wrote, ?The Key Guys have always treated me very well. Bryan runs a great and professional business. Being in the automotive field, it's hard to find a man that you can 100% trust, but that's Bryan.? He gave the company a 5 out of 5 rating. Another 5 star review comes from Jennifer Coelho, she wrote, ?Very responsive and professional. They arrived early and had my new key made in less than 15 minutes. It cost about half what I would pay at the dealer. I would definitely recommend The Key Guys.? According to Nystrom, the company has a dedicated fleet of service vehicles ready to help at a moment's notice anywhere in the Twin Cities area. The Car Key Locksmith experts offer their services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including weekends and holidays. This is in line with the company's continuous drive to providing excellent customer service and value for money products, Nystrom added.

The Twin Cities-based company was founded in 1988, initially to serve the Minneapolis area. They have expanded to serve the entire Twin Cities region since then. The company offers a variety of Automotive Locksmith services such as replacement of lost or stolen car keys, fixing of broken keys, and providing spare keys for emergencies. They can also remove broken keys stuck in a car's ignition or doors. Nystrom said they also have trained technicians that can assist auto shops with more complicated jobs. Tasks that require additional technological know how, such as ignition and door key repairs and programming of automotive transponders and key fobs. The Key Guys also offer simple fixes such as battery replacement and cutting of new keys. The company can service most car brands, from US brands like Ford and Chevrolet, to Asian imports like Toyota and KIA, to the more exclusive Jaguar and Rolls-Royce.

Interested car repair businesses, auto shops, and auto dealers can visit The Key Guys official website for a complete list of the company's products. Customers may inquire about specific services and schedule appointments using the site's Contact menu option. Individual car owners can also use the same option. According to Nystrom, they are always looking for different ways on how to improve the company's customer experience. And they take pride in providing the Twin Cities region with the highest quality of key replacement and repair services. In line with this, The Key Guys also provides valuable knowledge on anything related to car keys. Through the automotive locksmith blog, which can be found in the company's website, people can learn how to take proper care of their car keys, what to do in case of car keys getting stuck in the ignition, and many other frequently asked questions related to automotive keys.
