December 03, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Small Businesses In The News is now offering a limited time offer of a one time, 14-day free trial to try out the amazing software for landing pages, ClickFunnels. ClickFunnels, the internet's creative landing page builder, has developed a software application that is utilized by all different types of companies for many different uses. Their software helps non-tech individuals and companies to be able to develop multiple sales channels online.

Most companies use ClickFunnels to produce landing pages, product pages, shopping carts, membership sites, and more. There are many choices for what can be made through ClickFunnels, even with their free trial offer which allows subscribers to use everything that a paid member can use. This is a great chance to test out everything ClickFunnels has to offer for free. Members have many tools at their disposal that they need to market themselves online without hiring a full tech team.

Basic marketing and advertising is made easy with simple to use interfaces, beautiful ready to use templates, and time saving software integrations. With ClickFunnels, the company says it is easy to create highly converting marketing and advertising campaigns from the ground up.

To be able to see an example of how ClickFunnels works and the many tools that are able to be utilized through the free trial, follow this link. After watching the introductory video, those interested have the capability of signing up for a free ClickFunnels account for two weeks.
