

Sign Up With A New Mobile Plan And Get Scene Points At Telus

December 11, 2018

December 11, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta based Telus/Cambridge Electronics Incorporated is pleased to announce its continuous partnership with Scene Canada by offering 15,000 bonus points to Scene members who will activate a new Telus 2-year in-market Your Choice rate plan.

As part of the Telus Holiday Promotions, we partner again with Scene Canada in delighting our valued customers with this early Christmas present. From 03 to 13 December 2018, Scene members will get to enjoy a guaranteed 15,000 bonus points by simply subscribing to a new 2-year in-market Your Choice rate plan," says Dan L'Heureux, Director of Telus Fort Saskatchewan.

This amazing deal is currently being offered to new plan activations under Consumer accounts. In addition, interested customers must be residents of Canada who own valid phone numbers within their province of residence. Those who will sign-up may redeem their 15,000 bonus Scene points on all Telus Corporate stores, official retail partners, authorized dealer locations or on Telus' official website at telus.com. This current promotion is stackable with all Telus in-market offers except BYOD. Customers are also able to add-a-line or tablet (up to 4 lines) to their existing accounts by using their Scene membership cards.

Successful applicants must take note that the 15,000 bonus Scene points will be credited to their accounts on or before 15 January 2019. Meanwhile, customers are encouraged to wait until then before contacting Telus customer support at 1-780-998-9551.

Get Scene points at Telus by signing-up with a new plan activation as per the standard Telus application process. Customers can then choose any 2-year in market Your Choice plan and proceed to complete the transaction. After this easy application process, customers may visit telus.com/scene15k, fill-out an application form and provide a valid proof of Scene membership to avail of the promotion.

Scene is known to be one of the best entertainment rewards programs in Canada. By accumulating Scene points, members can turn their banking transactions into free movie tickets, dining vouchers and more. For as low as 500 points, customers will get to enjoy $5 off on their food and drinks at the movies. 1000 points can get them a free general admission movie ticket and 1500 points can be exchanged for a free premium movie ticket. Not only that, Scene points can also be exchanged into dining vouchers to avail discounts on restaurant chains like Swiss Chalet, Montama's, Harvey's and Kelseys Original Roadhouse to name a few. A comprehensive list of movie and dining perks can be found on Scene's official website.

By signing up on a new smartphone plan from Telus, customers are basically getting at least 15 free movie tickets with a total retail value of more or less, $200. So for those movie lovers who are considering a network jump, now is the best time to do so.

For many years now, Telus has been one of the major network providers in Canada. They are commended for their fast and reliable service, evident on their customer's feedback online.

"I've been with Telus for 15 to 20 years. They have fair treatment of customer and they never gouged. They even notified me if I made an extraordinary data usage. Customer service, even if located offshore would take extra time to help with any problems and further asks if there is anything else I needed. As I frequent other countries, they have plans that fit my needs and I always have consistent service either at their outlets or via calling their customer support," says Robert, one of their many satisfied clients.

Marven of Cobourg, Ontario added, "I have been with the three top Canadian carriers to date and this one is the best of any in my experience. Telus is easy to deal with. The customer service is superlative. If I have any problems and need to call Telus, the customer service people are always knowledgeable and friendly and they can fix any problem I have no matter how trivial it is."

"We are committed in providing excellent services that are of best value for money especially this holiday season. This is our way of appreciating and thanking our new and loyal customers alike," says L'Heureux.

Be on the look-out for a wide variety of Telus Holiday Offers this upcoming Christmas season. Interested parties may also visit Telus's official website for additional information regarding its ongoing promotions. Customers are also encouraged to connect with them by leaving a message or posting a comment on Telus's official Facebook page.
