Need Money Now is happy to announce that they are launching their new website to make their customers? lives easier when applying for financial assistance. Their new 3-step process has been integrated with the website in order to make the approval process faster and easier than it has ever been.

When approached about this announcement, the spokesperson for NeedMoneyNow shared this comment, ?We really wanted to modernize our website while also streamlining the application process for financial assistance. We understand that needing help can be difficult to accept and sitting in a financial assistance office doesn?t make it any easier. We aim to eliminate the feelings of public embarrassment by facilitating the entire process online, digitally. Our friendly financial assistance officers are standing by if you need help.?

Need Money Now had been in the business of helping residents in their local communities for over 20 years. They understand that the economy can be unpredictable and disruptive and that the need for help can arise suddenly. The founder of Need Money Now saw a need in their own community for people who needed help but didn?t have the proper history of borrowing in order to get the help they needed. Thus, they began this business to provide a necessary service.

Today, their online services are available 24 hours a day in order to provide assistance to those in need. Not only do they provide direct financial assistance, but they also provide financial management to help their customers? find the solutions they need to get back on their feet. New Zealand residents in need of financial assistance or financial advice are encouraged to visit Need Money Now?s Facebook page: https://www.facebook.com/needmoneynownz/.

Tiffany Getty, a Christchurch resident shared this review of her experience with Need Money Now, ?I needed help pretty bad. I had a family emergency that required me to fly out of the countries the next day and I didn?t have the money to do it. Need Money Now was able to help me get the money I needed and the online process was fast and easy. The financial assistance team helped me set up a pay back plan that fit my budget and I was able to focus on my family in their time of need. I couldn?t be happier about my experience with Need Money Now.

Need Money Now has a quick application process and all personal information is stored on their secure data servers. In many cases, they are able to approve applications the same day as the application, so those in need are encouraged to apply right away. The car I had been driving for 6 years broke down and I needed new transportation right away in order to get to and from work. Need Money Now was able to help me get [what] I needed quickly in order to put a down payment on my new car and I was mobile again in less than 2 days. Thanks guys!?

The assistance provided by Need Money Now is described as being transparent with their process, fees, and payment costs. Additionally, they are able to process the entire application online, saving customers the trip and hassle of printing off documents and heading to an office. Prospective borrowers simply need a verifyable source of income and a bank account.

Ruth J. has utilized Need Money Now?s financial assistance programs several times over the years.
