Montgomery, Texas-based Texas Baseball Ranch has successfully concluded the 19th Annual "Ultimate Pitching Coaches Bootcamp" last 07-09 December 2018.

The three-day event held at The Texas Baseball Ranch was participated by more than 150 high school, college and professional coaches, as well as academy instructors from all over the United States and was even attended by one participant all the way from the Netherlands.

The sold-out "Ultimate Pitching Coaches Bootcamp" annual event, now in its 19th year, is considered the Gold Standard of the baseball industry in terms of sharing of pitching information, techniques and strategies. Those who missed out on the opportunity can still purchase a copy of the event on DVD at www.coachesbootcamp.com.

Big names in the professional baseball industry graced the event by discussing a total of 18 presentations which covered broad and deep topics in pitching mechanical efficiencies, effective training processes as well as effective data collection and storage solutions. Guests of honor and speakers included the likes of Brent Strom, major league pitching coach, Houston Astros; Derek Johnson, major league pitching coach, Cincinnati Reds; Dewey Robinson, pitching coordinator, Tampa Bay Rays; Vern Gambetta, athletic development coach, GAIN Network; Trevor Ragan of www.TrainUgly.com; Dave Lawn, pitching coach, University of Arizona together with nine other speakers including Ron Wolforth and the Texas Baseball Ranch staff.

"It is the mission of the Texas Baseball Ranch to remain at the forefront of the training and development of baseball pitchers. This event continues to allow us to bring together the top thought leaders on this subject and provides a great forum for all to share," says Ron Wolforth, CEO of Texas Baseball Ranch.

The Texas Baseball Ranch is a baseball training facility known for its specialized training programs for aspiring amateur and professional pitchers alike. Their training camp, facilities and professional instructors have already been featured on numerous sports media including 60 Minute Sports, ESPN and Sports Illustrated to name a few. For 19 years now, they have been organizing the "Ultimate Pitching Coaches Bootcamp" to help train coaches, and in turn players, to maximize their skills and advance to the next level.

Participants from this year's bootcamp commended The Texas Baseball Ranch on putting together such a useful event for instructors and players alike.

"I'm always impressed with the high quality of the weekend. I leave overwhelmed and yet challenged in my leadership. The Ranch challenges me as a coach and as a leader. I love getting new ideas and new approaches and the Boot Camp delivers every time," says Keith Veale of Mt. Vernon Nazarene University.

Meanwhile, Jeff Ware of Toronto Blue Jays added, "Ron Wolforth has really put together a tremendous lineup of speakers that really resonates with all levels of pitching. You definitely leave there a better coach, player, leader and/or person."

Aside from the event's DVDs, The Texas Baseball Ranch also offers Baseball Ranch Pitching Training Products. Coaches and baseball players can avail a series of useful modules such as The Velocity Enhancement Program, The Command Enhancement Program, Lower Half Development, Pitchers Toolbox 2.0, Recovery Enhancement and many more. Those who are interested can take advantage of their ongoing offers from any of their pre-recorded training programs.

The Texas Baseball Ranch is well known for its solid reputation in providing extensive baseball training for its students.

Jack Bussard, one their trainees said, "I loved the Texas Baseball Ranch. They are very progressive people and they were willing to individually help you. Every student receives a personalized plan to fit what they need to work on. In the past two months, I have increased my velocity by six mph and (my) movement patterns have been corrected."

Greg Vines, who enlisted his son on their training program added, "Very simple, if you want to improve all aspects of your craft, you invest in this camp. Their approach is unlike anything my son has been involved in; they focus on the individual player and their skill set, telling you what you do well, and what you can do to improve. The entire staff is top notch and have a great passion for baseball."

There is only one remaining pitchers boot camp at The Texas Baseball Ranch this winter and space is limited. More information about their products and services can be found on their website at www.TexasBaseballRanch.com. Coaches and players may also connect with them through their official social media accounts on Facebook and Twitter to know more of their updated event schedules, latest news and important announcements.
