Real Estate Consultant In Houston Tx Offers Direct House Buying Service

December 31, 2018

December 31, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Houston, Texas-based Lone Star Property Buyers is pleased to announce that they are now directly buying homes and properties in Houston and the neighboring areas.

Lone Star Property Buyers is a real estate company that directly connects homeowners to potential buyers, thus eliminating estate agents and middlemen. Marketing a property tagged as for sale by owner (FSOB) offers a lot of benefits to sellers such as freedom to marketing and pricing control as well as avoidance of high agent commission and advertising fees to name a few. In addition, buyers get the benefit of transparency as they deal with the owners themselves and not with real estate agents who might have very limited knowledge about the property.

According to Irene Frasern of Lone Star Property Buyers, transactions are likely to succeed if sellers and buyers will directly deal with each other. By eliminating the middleman, both parties will be able to have a more open discussion and transparent negotiation. Each of them will also no longer have to shoulder hefty real estate agent fees of around 5-7%. By eliminating this cost, buyers can better negotiate for the property's lowest possible price. Meanwhile, sellers also have more leeway in adjusting and determining their pricing options.

Another benefit of eliminating realtors is having the full freedom to search for desired properties without being forced to. ?Most often, agents are too pushy just to make sales and get their commission. Sometimes, they will even introduce to you a lot of properties that are way too different from your requirements. Save your time and the hassle of being pressured by agents by directly contacting the seller or the buyer of the property,? says Frasern. This is true, he says, because dealing with a lot of people usually results in a more complicated and difficult buying and selling process.

Moreover, since both parties will no longer have professional support from a real estate agent, buyers are encouraged to do a more thorough research on the property as well the neighboring areas before even trying to schedule for an estate viewing. ?Buyers must need to study and research the usual home pricing around the area. In addition, they can also even try to talk to the neighbors to assess if there is anything to be worried about,? she added. Houston is regarded as one of the best cities to buy a house and raise a family in all of United States. According to recent statistics, Houston is a very diverse city that offers safety, great employment opportunities, top-notch education system, low cost of living and affordable housing solutions. It also offers a very vibrant food, entertainment and sports scenes as well.

One of Houston residents said, ?Born and raised here in the great city of Houston. I have seen so much change while growing up here. The city has been through so much in the past few years and has always managed to bounce back and push forward in accommodating the ever-evolving and growing community and surrounding areas. Love this city and I look forward to what is to come in the near future.?
