January 03, 2019 -

The Sarnia Living Real Estate Guide is the showcase of homes and properties for sale in Sarnia. Sarnia Living also provides a clear look at what the area has to offer the community.

Homes range from ranch style to bi-level, to three stories, maybe even a garage; it all depends on what the family needs and wants. It could be a place large enough for Gramma and Grandpa to move into but still have their space to be alone together. It could be just a small place to start out until the family grows. No matter what size, it is in the Sarnia Living Real Estate Guide.

Ryan Powell, editor in chief of Sarnia Living says, "Sarnia Living will give full details about happenings in the community, restaurants to eat, the local Coffee Culture house, hotels, events, and history." Sarnia provides a well-rounded place to live and work for both families and single people where everyone can become part of the community.

The guide will help with school choices as there are 38 schools, elementary to college; most of these have between 4 and 5-star ratings. All are in safe neighborhoods which will help ease the anxiety of parents while

Sarnia Living also shows activities for both family and adults; there is always something to do in Sarnia. From the car show and art walk for families to beer tents and live entertainment, everyone will be sure to find something they will enjoy. For those looking for something a little more toned-down, Sarnia Living points out activities such as the art galleries and the historical Lawrence House that offer something educational and low-key for the whole family to enjoy.

When it comes to shopping Sarnia Living showcases the shopping scene with two malls in Sarnia: Lambton mall and Bayside mall. There are two strip malls as well: Confederation Square and Sarnia Square. However, Sarnia offers not only malls but smaller shops that can offer a more personal experience. The Bookkeeper is a fantastic bookstore that is the place for any book lover to go, Stitches offers clothing and apparel, and Silhouettes Boutique is a women's apparel store which may just be the best place to find what women need for work, home, and play. There are many other little shops to explore and treasures to find in Sarnia, as well.

Sarnia Living highlights the many parks in Sarnia each offering different things, which makes it easy to find the one that is just right for each person. Whether they like to play in the water or just enjoy the gardens there is a park that will be the right choice for the whole family or individual. Canatara Beach and Park for instance offers a BMX track, a petting zoo, and mini train ride along with beach activities. There is even Blackwell Dog Park so man's best friends can have a place to play too.

Sarnia Living is designed to showcase all the things that Sarnia has to offer in one convenient place. It is like a community bulletin board, where a person can find everything from homes for sale to events that are happening. They will even find the complete history of Sarnia there, as well as, from Native American roots forward. Sarnia Living shows there is a lot of history to Sarnia just waiting to be explored.

No matter what a person is looking for: events, shopping, restaurants, history, or more they can follow Sarnia Living on their Facebook page to find out what is happening and where.
