Phoenix, Arizona based Flesher Home & Away Realty has recently received another great review from one of its many customers, this is due to their reliable and professional real estate services.

April Shankle, in a Google review, said, ?Thankfully, a friend recommended Bill at Flesher Home & Away Realty. She had recently worked with Bill in her quest for a new home. She couldn't say enough good things about working with Bill, and how professional and knowledgeable he was. I took her advice and contacted Bill, and I'm so glad I did. He was all that she said and more. He helped me dial in on exactly what it was I wanted in my new home and made the process of finding and buying a home relatively easy. I wasn't nearly as stressed as I thought I would be, and I credit that to Bill and his team. He helped me buy a home that I feel I will be in for the rest of my life, and I'm so grateful for that. I'm telling all my friends about Bill and I couldn't recommend him any higher.?

Likewise, we have a wide range of Phoenix real estate for sale, for buyers who want to settle down in Arizona,? says Bill Flesher of Flesher Home & Away Realty.

According to niche.com, an online platform that ranks cities for their livability, Phoenix received a consensus rating of ?A-? based on several criteria, such as public schools, housing, crime and safety, nightlife, diversity and for generally being a good place to raise a family.

Phoenix has an estimated population of 1.5 million. It is located in Maricopa County and is considered as one of the best places to live in Arizona. Living in the area provides a ?suburban feel? and most residents own their own homes. The community is mostly composed of young professionals and families with moderate political views. More importantly, the schools are above average by American standards.

One of its current residents said on niche.com, ?Arizona is the best state to live in because the cost of living is cheaper when compared to other cities and states. It has beautiful scenery, luxurious hotspots, and so much more. Arizona has the most diverse people from California, New York, Washington and even South Korea. There are a lot of job opportunities in AZ with Paradise Valley having the highest median income. The cuisine in AZ is as diverse and amazing as the people who live here. From deep dish pizza, Korean BBQ, tacos, Japanese noodles, Boba, ice cream, and bars with arcade games, you will never have a boring night in AZ. Although we are known as the Valley of the Sun, we also have snow up to the north in Sedona and Flagstaff with the most beautiful scenery that you?ll ever see.?
