Many Memphis residents regard the city as one of the top places to raise a family in the United States.

A current resident says, "I have lived in Memphis for five years now. I grew up in Nashville, but I love Memphis so much more. I went to college here, and found an amazing job after graduation. The city is so vibrant and has so many things to do, both for young people and families. I moved away for 11 months due to school and I hated it. That wasn't because there was anything wrong with my new city, but because it wasn't Memphis. I honestly don't see myself leaving again. I have made Memphis my home and I love it."

"I was born and raised here in Memphis, TN. The public schools in the area are highly recommended because they have excellent curricula for children. Memphis caters to a wide variety of entertainment needs, especially in its active and colorful nightlife. I bought a beautiful home here, where I am surrounded by friendly families as well. I am a single mother who is raising three sons here in Memphis with hardly any problems when it comes to safety and security. I am proud to be a resident of Memphis," says another resident.
