Real Estate Consultant Buying Houses In Memphis TN

December 31, 2018

December 31, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Cash for Memphis Homes has announced that they are now buying houses in Memphis, Tennessee. The company states that they purchase homes directly from homeowners without the need for a real estate agent.

A representative for the company says, "We are currently purchasing homes in the Memphis area. Homes can be in any condition and we buy them in any situation without the need for real estate agencies and all the paperwork that typically comes along with them."

More on the company and what they do can be seen at <https://cashformemphishomes.business.site/>. The company states that they offer an alternative for those who are looking to sell their homes quickly and without worries of repairs and other fixes that are often required before a home can be listed on the real estate market. The company representative states that homeowners find the process a bit less tedious than working with real estate agents and that in most cases, an offer can be made on the home in a matter of hours.

"Depending on the situation, the homeowner may need to sell the home quickly," says the representative. "We are interested in any home and make the entire process much easier than listing it on the market. Our process is straightforward and we always explain the process to the owner, ensuring that they fully understand everything before we proceed."

The company says that the appeal for homeowners is that the sale can go quickly and without repairs, appraisals, inspections and other paperwork that is required before a real estate agent can list the home for sale. The homeowner simply determines whether or not they wish to accept the offer that is provided, and the company will move on from there. More on this process can be seen at <https://goo.gl/maps/QCj1jXpaM5o>.

The company states that any homeowner in Memphis and the surrounding areas that wishes to sell a home should contact them to proceed. They state that they purchase homes of all sizes and shapes and in any condition, including homes that are in dire need of repairs and those that are facing foreclosure. They state that they offer the most streamlined process for homeowners to sell their homes and get out from under their mortgage quickly, even if there is still money owed on the property. The company states that they can discuss options with homeowners who still owe money on their homes.

The company representative states that another appealing factor of their services for homeowners is that unlike real estate agents, they do not charge a commission for the sale. They do not have hidden fees and homeowners know upfront about what they are receiving from the sale. There is not a lot of paperwork involved and the company states that they can often get the home sale completed within seven days from the first point of contact.

Cash for Memphis Homes has been offering home buying services in Memphis and the surrounding areas for a number of years. The company states that while the traditional avenue of selling a home is fine for some homeowners, there are reasons that some may not be able to go this traditional route, which is where their services come in. Homes that are in need of many repairs that would typically not bring much on the real estate market may be sold to the company for a bit more than the homeowner would expect by selling through traditional means. The company spokesperson says that any homeowner who does not have the option of selling through a real estate agency or who needs to sell their home quickly without waiting for months to find an interested buyer should contact them to discuss their options.
