Bowling Green, KY. - The Personal Injury law firm of Mike Breen proudly announces the celebration of 27 years of legal practice in the Bowling Green area. Opening their office in Bowling Green, KY on June 1, 1991, the Personal Injury Lawyer in Bowling Green rapidly started helping more and more individuals in the area throughout the years.

Mike Breen created the firm to help individuals in Bowling Green with car accidents or personal injury problems. The law firm specializes in motor vehicle, medical malpractice, and dog bites cases.

"We love representing people in Personal Injury cases as these are the people that we all see in our everyday life," says Mike Breen. "Our clients have similar problems in trying to manage and juggle their daily lives and finances while making sure that they have adequate funds to pay basic living expenses. An injury is the last thing they should worry about."

Mike Breen began his career as a Car Accident Lawyer in Bowling Green in 1983 after graduating from the University of Kentucky College of Law. Mike knew early on that he wanted to represent people who had been harm by others, like corporations and insurance companies. However, he felt that the best way to become really good at this was to learn things from the inside out; so, he actually did insurance defense as a lawyer early in his career. This gave him valuable insights into how cases ought to be handled, and how insurance companies worked.

"Mike was always courteous and professional," says Evelyn M., who was a client of Mike Breen. "Whenever possible outcomes of the case were discussed, he was realistic and thoroughly explained the situation before any decisions were made on how to best move forward. I also appreciated Mike and his staff's compassionate attitude throughout the case. If you are looking for an attorney who will listen, then Mike Breen should definitely be on your short list!"

Congratulations Mike Breen on a job well done. For more information regarding Mike Breen, please call (270) 418-3189 or visit their website at <https://mikebreen.com>.
