December 31, 2018 -
Beaverton, Ore. ? Express Employment Professionals, a successful job agency in Beaverton is proud to receive the prestigious Bronze Circle of Excellence award. This recognition is given to select Express offices for their annual performance with assisting local businesses and job seekers.

"We are so proud to have been awarded the Bronze Circle of Excellence within the organization," Express Tigard Franchisee Jill Loveless said. "Our team has worked so hard all year and to be recognized for our efforts is motivation to carry our dedication into the new year."

Each year, various Express franchises are granted various Circle of Excellence awards based on their performance, participation and commitment to service. The Express Tigard team has been committed to providing job seekers and employers throughout the Washington County region with the best workforce solutions to meet both short-term and long-term goals for individuals and businesses alike.

As one of the top employment agencies, it?s crucial for Express to chase achieving Circle of Excellence status on a yearly basis. The steps that it takes to be awarded are beneficial for franchisees looking to grow and expand their business so following-suit and meeting each qualification for the Express Tigard team was advantageous to the providers of employment in Beaverton.
