January 07, 2019

January 07, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Rochester Home Pros has announced that they are expanding their home remodeling services in Rochester, New York. The company provides general contracting services that includes home expansions, remodeling and renovations.

A complete list of their services can be seen at <https://rochesterhomepros14612.business.site/>. A representative for the remodeling company says, "We are pleased to be expanding our list of services to include all homeowners in the Rochester area. We offer professional renovations and remodeling for any room in the house, as well as outdoor living space additions."

The company states that they can build patios, decks and other outdoor structures to give homeowners a more relaxing outdoor living experience. In addition, they provide complete kitchen, bathroom, living room and other home remodeling services as well as additional rooms. The company representative states that adding a new room to the home can help to add functionality and improve the overall value of the home.

"For those who are considering selling their homes, we offer additions that can significantly raise the home value,? says the company spokesperson. ?Adding a new room, turning an ordinary basement into a mancave or even remodeling the garage to add more room can all help homeowners to get more from their sale.?

The company representative states that they can consult with homeowners who are looking to increase the value of their homes and advise them on changes that can be made that meet with the homeowner's desired ROI. Small changes such as painting or adding new flooring can make a huge difference when it comes to listing a home for sale.

The company offers their entire list of services to clients in and around the Rochester area. A full list of their service areas can be seen at <https://goo.gl/maps/jSaGE8CxYHq>. The company representative states interested homeowners can contact them directly to discuss their remodeling needs. He says that during the initial consultation, the company will learn exactly what the homeowner wants to accomplish and provide advice for design and functionality as well as budget.

The company states that they provide professional renovations and hire only qualified and experienced personnel for all of their jobs. The company representative states that all employees undergo background checks and are vetted to ensure that they live up to the reputation that Rochester Home Pros has built over the years. The company has been providing general contractor work for years and states that they are pleased to now be offering even more services and to customers in outlying areas of Rochester.

Rochester Home Pros states that they can consult with homeowners who are unsure of what changes they want to make and help them to determine the best way to proceed with their remodeling. The company states that they offer services for every room in the home as well as outdoors and can help homeowners to choose the design that will work best for their home. The company states that their goal is to help homeowners to build the homes of their dreams or to add extra value to their home to bring more on the real estate market if they are planning to sell the home in the near future. The company also provides general repairs and can talk with homeowners about additional services that may be needed.

Homeowners in Rochester, New York and the surrounding areas can visit the company on their official website to learn more about the specific services that they provide and to read more about their experience. Reviews from past customers can also be seen on the website. Those who are interested in setting up a consultation will find contact information on the site, as well to call and schedule an appointment. The company states that they work with homeowners to ensure that all of their space, functionality, design and budgeting needs are met with every job.
