January 03, 2019

Baltimore, Maryland - January 03, 2019 -
Baltimore, MD - Dependable Homebuyers one of the fastest growing, and most forward-thinking home buying companies in Baltimore is excited to announce that they were recently interviewed on the epodcast network. The company has been building a positive reputation within the home buying industry, and this podcast interview has helped to educated potential homeowner of their options when it comes time to sell.

The podcast which can be found at https://epodcastnetwork.com/how-to-sell-an-ugly-house-in-maryland/ was entitled ?How To Sell An Ugly House In Maryland.? Evan Roberts, the owner of Dependable Homebuyers, detailed at length the many tips and pieces of advice that in his opinion would help people to quickly sell a property. This included certain situations such as selling a hoarder house, being behind on payments, or just needing more repairs than the homeowner has the budget to complete.

One of those solutions of course could be to contact Dependable Homebuyers themselves as they buy many properties every month, often making an offer on the first viewing. If anyone is in need of selling their property quickly and without the hassle and stress of becoming trapped in a chain, then click here for a cash offer.

?When my partners and I launched Dependable Homebuyers, I never expected to be featured on a podcast,? said Evan Roberts of Dependable Homebuyers. ?I had a brilliant time recording the episode, although before we recorded it, I will admit to being a little bit nervous, as public speaking is not something I am particularly confident in. However, once the show got going, I really started to enjoy myself, and I am a little surprised to admit that I am already looking forward to my next appearance. Perhaps more importantly though I genuinely hope that the information and advice I provided during the podcast will help any listeners to quickly and easily sell their property. We speak to many people every month about the stress and hassle that is involved when trying to sell a property, which is something my company tries to remove from the situation. Although I enjoyed my time behind the mic, my true passion remains inside the real estate industry, simply due to the pleasure, delight and in some cases relief, that my company can bring to our clients. In my opinion, I have the best job in the world, and I wouldn?t change it for anything.?
