Credit Advisors Council - Credit Repair Brooklyn Announces Lawyer-Backed Credit Repair Service in Brooklyn, NY

January 15, 2019

January 15, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Credit Advisors Council - Credit Repair Brooklyn is happy to announce that they are offering lawyer-backed credit repair services in Brooklyn, New York. Credit Advisors Council has been operating in Brooklyn, NY for over 25 years. Their aim is to assist local residents with credit repair so that they can buy a home or car with low-rate financial assistance, should the desire ever arise.

When approached about this announcement, the spokesperson of Credit Advisors Council shared this comment, "With the holidays passed, we understand that some residents may have spent beyond their means and are now saddled with debt they can't afford. It's nothing to be embarrassed about - they simply wanted to provide an incredible experience for their loved ones. Though our main business is credit repair, we also encourage those who are in risk of needing credit repair to contact us for credit damage prevention. Our assistance is lawyer-backed, meaning that we have the legal knowledge and experience of fixing credit for our clients."

Though the spokesperson focused on holiday spending in their comment, they also noted that many families couldn't provide an incredible holiday experience to their families due to their current bad credit history. The spokesperson suggests that they could prevent the same feeling of disappointment for this year's holiday season by contacting them now, at the beginning of the year. Credit Advisors Council - Credit Repair Brooklyn has been serving the community of Brooklyn for over two decades. They focus on disputing and removing inaccurate charges and provide assistance with paying back the debt that remains. Their primary goal is to help their clients restore their credit so that the financial aspect of their life is back on track, allowing them to live their life free of worry about debt and bad credit. A credit counselor is happy to help any resident in Brooklyn get started right away.

Lemond Deleo, a Brooklyn resident, shared this review of his experience with Credit Advisors Council in Brooklyn, "My credit has improved drastically in a short period of time, which I didn't have much hope for. Thank you for not only improving my credit, but for giving me hope."

Though credit repair is their main service, Credit Advisors Council is happy to provide several credit-related services. Some of these services include credit counseling, student loan forgiveness, debt consolidation, financial literacy, building credit, and helping recover from identity theft. They understand that damaged credit can often be the result of many factors, including but not limited to overspending, loss of employment while already in debt, and stolen identity. Credit Advisors Council can help repair credit, regardless of the circumstance.

Victor Kelly, a recent client of Credit Advisors Council - Credit Repair Brooklyn, shared this 5-star review on Google, "Just called them last week and had all my credit blemishes evaluated. More than half of them were challenged and removed, drastically increasing my credit score almost immediately. Incredible service!"

Credit Advisors Council - Credit Repair Brooklyn, a credit repair service in Brooklyn, aims to get their clients up to a 700 score as quickly as possible. They even offer affordable payment plans so that clients can get their credit repaired without having to pay a sum of money that may seem out of reach for them. Alternatively, some clients pay per deletion in order to minimize their cost. A credit advisor will be able to provide more information about which option will be best for an individual client's needs.

Jane Ferguson was looking for a credit repair company to improve her credit score. This was the glowing review she left on Google after her experience with Credit Advisors Council - Credit Repair Brooklyn, "This is a credit repair company that you can rely on. They taught me credit repair basics and improved my credit score in the process. I am happy I found this company!"
