Need Money Now Releases New Website

January 10, 2019

January 10, 2019 -
Christchurch, New Zealand based financial services company NeedMoneyNow has announced that they have released a new website. The company states that they are providing customers with fast and easy financial assistance in 2019 through their new website, which includes an easy online application.

A representative for the company says, ?Our easy application process makes it simple for our customers to get the assistance that they need. We have designed our website to be easy to navigate so that customers will be able to easily find the information that they need.?

The company states that they wanted to provide a more modern website for customers that includes a streamlined application process. The company representative states that the design of their new website features an easy to follow layout and navigation that they feel customers will appreciate.

?When people need financial assistance, they want it to be quick and worry-free,? says the company spokesperson. ?Many feel that going into a brick and mortar establishment for these kinds of products is a bit embarrassing and even overwhelming. That?s why we offer an easy online application process that takes the worry out of finding adequate financial assistance and why we have designed our new website to work in favor of our customers.?

The company states that those who would like more information on the products that they offer or their new online application can learn more at https://www.pressadvantage.com/story/23548-need-money-now-announces-the-launch-of-their-new-website. The company representative states that everything about the new design, right down to the easy to follow menu of items, was done with their customers in mind. He says that the new easy application process makes it easier for customers to apply for and receive the financial assistance that they require.

Need Money Now has been providing a wide range of customer financial products for more than two decades. The company states that they know how intimidating it can be for customers to apply for financial assistance and says that their new website makes it a bit easier for their customers to find what they need. The new site includes information about all of the financial products that they offer, giving an overview of each one and has a questions and answers section that the company says should handle any inquiries that customers have about them or the financial process.

The company representative says that customers are still welcome and even encouraged to contact them directly if they have a question that is not answered on the newly designed website. The company also has social media pages where customers can ask questions and connect with the company, as well as with other customers. Their official company Facebook page has reviews and testimonials that were provided by other customers who have been more than satisfied with the services that they have received from the company over the years. Customers who are interested in connecting with the company on social media can like their official Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/needmoneynownz/.

The company representative states that their new website gives access to customers around the clock. Customers can apply for financial products at any time, 24 hours a day and seven days a week. The company states that they offer a wide range of products, as well as financial management to help their customers to make the most of the money that they have available. The company states that those who are interested in learning more can visit them on their new website where all information is provided. Need Money Now boasts financial instruments for customers that include full disclosure of their process without any hidden fees or payments. The company states that their new online application is available to help customers to save time. They state that anyone who has questions can read through their frequently asked questions on the website or contact the company through Facebook or by using their direct contact information which is provided on their newly designed website.
