January 17, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Dr. Aaron Kosins, a prominent physician in Newport Beach, California has been deemed the best plastic surgeon Orange County by his patients. Dr. Kosins provides a wide range of plastic surgery procedures from rhinoplasty to nerve regeneration and has, over the past few years, published a large number of articles and journals showing his skills and findings in his field.

Dr. Kosins states, "I, along with my entire team, pride ourselves on being on the cutting edge of our industry. We use the latest in techniques and procedures to ensure that every single patient is fully satisfied with their results and that they receive the best care possible."

Dr. Kosins states that he takes special interest in surgical rejuvenation, as well as nutrition and skin health as they relate to patient treatment. He states that his techniques include treating the whole patient and not simply the one area that they have issues with. He states that every patient will not need a surgical procedure but says that some can be treated with other plans that are more suited to their issues.

"Plastic surgery as a field should not simply be about cutting on patients and performing surgical procedures,? Dr. Kosins says. ?One of the reasons that our patients rely on us and trust us is because we do not simply push a surgical procedure on them. We consult with them, going over various factors and then come to a decision about the best possible treatment for their individual needs.?

Aaron Kosins MD has worked with world-renowned innovators in the field of plastic surgery, including stem cell technology, microsurgery and other procedures. He has a number of published journal articles that can be read in the Journal of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery as well as the Aesthetic Surgery Journal, the Canadian Journal of Plastic Surgery and various other industry publications. He states that he and his team are dedicated to the patient, finding the right treatment for each individual need. He states that customer service, in this case patient satisfaction and care, are always the number one priority in his office.

Patients agree that Dr. Kosins and his team care about them and their issues. Dr. Kosins states that those who are interested can visit him online and read through a number of patient testimonials both on his company website and on the official Facebook page for his practice. He states that his office welcomes patient feedback and always encourages their patients to share their experience with others. He says that it is this sharing of patient experience that has him named as the best in his field in the county.

Dr. Kosins graduated from the University of California with studies in business administration as well as pre-med. He earned his Medical Degree and his Masters degree in business administration from the University of California, Irvine School of Medicine and the Paul Merage School of Business. The plastic surgeon spend years working in finance with different biotechnology companies before returning to the University of California to complete his program in Integrated Plastic Surgery.

During his Integrated Plastic Surgery studies, Dr. Kosins received his training in a number of plastic and reconstructive surgery techniques. He states that he works every day to continue to learn and to further his craft so that he and his practice can help patients in the Newport Beach area to get the best possible outcome from their plastic surgery experience. Dr. Kosins and his practice state that they are honored to have been named the best of the best in plastic surgery in their county and will continue to fine-tune their craft, always ensuring that patients receive the very best in medical care and the best in plastic surgery techniques and outcomes.
