January 23, 2019 -

Toronto, Ontario based Psychic Advisor is pleased to announce the upcoming launch of their new service to help people in Canada find the right spiritual counsellor for them. Headed by Debra Hall, the new venture aims to help people find reputable spiritual advisors in Canada and avoid getting scammed.

Focusing on the Toronto area, the new service will identify scam artists or unethical practices, and build a network of trusted and reliable sources that people can use for guidance. Whether someone is in need of relationship advice or requires help coping with a tragedy, or just wants to plan for the future, Psychic Advisor connects individuals with trusted and ethical professionals they can seek spiritual guidance from.

Their website, <https://psychicadvisor.co>, provides details on the spiritual advisory process, and tips on how to make the most out of counselling sessions. There is a particular focus on scam prevention, and there's an entire section enumerating the methods by which an individual can gauge whether their spiritual advisor is genuine and maintains ethical standards.

Debra Hall, the brains behind the project, has a lot of experience dealing with psychics and spiritual healers over the past 20 years. She describes going to almost every spiritual counsellor in Toronto and discovering that there are a lot of frauds out there.

"I have been to a countless number of spiritual advisors over the past 20 years," said Debra. "I have tried everything in the spiritual counselling book, from phone readings, astrology readings, tarot cards, palm readings, and just about everything in between. The biggest thing I've learned is that not all spiritual advisors are created equal, and some are flat-out scammers. The talent and ability of these counsellors can vary dramatically, which is why I am launching this service to help people find the right guidance."

Spiritual guidance seekers may avail themselves of this service by visiting the website. There is a focus on phone based sessions, and the website actively encourages customers to use phone-based services in order to preserve their privacy. Although, if privacy isn't of concern, the team at Psychic Advisor can also offer in person sessions that are more personal and engaging for the guidance seeker.

The Toronto spiritual advisor and fortune-telling industry are rife with scams and fraudulent practices. According to a survey by Huffpost/YouGov and a 2015 Gallup poll, nearly one in every three or four North Americans believes in paranormal activities. Such a large target audience creates an ideal breeding ground for fraudulent practices in an industry that is estimated to be worth over $2 Billion in the US alone. These illegitimate businesses often involve a combination of grooming and sales techniques linked to extravagant fees; they often charge hundreds of dollars for pretend rituals and sessions.

Advisory services, such as the one offered by Debra Hall, attempt to unmask some of these fraudulent practitioners and highlight the ones that are ethical and trustworthy.

"You can start by conducting good research based on customer reviews, and the type of ability and overall experience of your medium," stated Hall. "Thus, you get the ability to make an informed choice. Medium services often provide you with a satisfaction guarantee. This means that you can still get a refund if you are not satisfied with the service. Reputable online mediums are screened and tested for their skill and ability, as well as their commitment to helping others. These mediums are further tested for both honesty and integrity, and their level of accuracy. So it's never a game of guesswork—you are getting your spiritual guidance from the tried and tested."

Although based in Toronto, Ontario, the service will be made available for people in Mississauga, Brampton, Hamilton, Oakville, Ottawa, Niagara, Milton, and London (Ontario).

Potential customers wishing to get spiritual advice and counselling can visit the website for advisor recommendations, or use the contact information listed therein. Interested parties can also walk in to the office, the location of which can be found at the Google Map link here.
