On Wednesday, January 23, 2019, at 11 am PST, 12 pm MST, 2 pm EST, OneTeacher and Upbeat will host How to Get Ahead of Teacher Retention & Employee Engagement, a free hour-long webinar for school and system leaders. OneTeacher connects inspired educators with Title I schools across Arizona, and Upbeat gives school leaders the data and tools to improve teacher retention. The two organizations have recently partnered to further support Arizona's schools in finding, hiring, and retaining excellent educators.

"We have put a lot of time and energy into our research and work on teacher retention. We're excited to share these findings with school and system leaders so that they can be more proactive in keeping their best teachers," says Henry Wellington, Upbeat's Founder and CEO.

January's webinar will cover causes of teacher turnover as well as leadership best practices and concrete resources for leaders. It is open to all school and system leaders, and there is no fee to attend. To sign up to attend live or to receive a recording after the fact, register here or contact Erin Tobin at Erin.Tobin@oneteacheraz.com.
