January 23, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

California based Azran Financial APC San Francisco is pleased to announce that they are now extending their professional startup accounting services to the Bay Area.

Azran Financial APC is a full-service Certified Public Accounting (CPA) and Advisory firm who specializes in providing businesses and individuals with accounting, audit, and tax and advisory services. The company is regarded as one of the top accounting firms in San Francisco and the surrounding areas, and an industry leader in Cloud Accounting, Financial Systems, Business Process Automation, and Artificial Intelligence (AI). They also provide Blockchain Accounting Solutions and Crypto Taxation.

?No startup was ever acquired because they had built a great finance department, but many never reached their highest potential due to issues with their accounting,? said Joshua Azran, Founder of Azran Financial APC. ?This is the reason why we aim to supply startups with the proper inputs, outputs, and frameworks to help them make better financial decisions, while also maintaining the feedback loop to adapt, adjust, and continuously improve.?

As noted on the company's website, their San Francisco office is a one-stop-shop for all accounting related services, including audit and Agreed Upon Procedures (AUP), audit preparation, best practices consulting, business management, business valuation, cash-flow modeling and projections, compensation planning, debt and equity structuring, domestic and international tax compliance, due diligence for buyers and sellers, entity formation, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) compliance, temporary CFO services, 83(b) elections, 409(a) valuations, and more.

"We are a licensed and fully certified accounting firm, and not just CFOs or controllers like other accounting companies may employ. In addition to this, our expertise in all types of businesses allows us to deal with a number of domestic and international companies, including Delaware C-Corporations, LLCs, S-Corps, etc. Furthermore, we offer a proprietary Holistic Accounting solution, and work beyond the scope of a traditional accounting firm," Azran said.

Aside from startup accounting services, Azran also explained that they offer a number of other professional accounting solutions, including forensic accounting, expatriate taxation, bookkeeping, outsourced accounting services, tax compliance, and more. He also added that the firm focuses on a number of key areas such as Blockchain, Cryptocurrency, Cryptocoins and tokens, venture capital, private equity, hedge funds, manufacturing, wholesale, distribution, and real estate development, as well as construction management.

"Azran Financial considers every client relationship like a partnership. We believe that our success is a result of their success," he stated. "That is why we are committed to paying close attention and taking a personal approach to our clients. Aside from that, we continuously invest our time and money to ensure that we are delivering the best and latest accounting services in the market by using state-of-the-art computer technologies and modern software solutions."

Those looking for a startup CPA in San Francisco may consider Azran Financial APC. They are considered one of the top accounting firms in Los Angeles, Encino, San Francisco, and the surrounding areas based on the positive reviews and recommendations they receive online.

One satisfied client, in a Google review, said, "My startup company grew from three friends working together in a garage to a business venture with a $20M annual revenue. Azran Financial not only provides strategic and professional accounting services but they also genuinely care about their clients. I am grateful that I've found a trustworthy team of experts to handle our company's accounting."

"I came to Azran Financial for my Startup and I could not be more satisfied with the finance and accounting services that Josh and his firm have given me. It is not easy when you're just starting out, and it is so comforting to have a team of professionals like them on your side. If you're in the same position and you need an accountant, do not hesitate to connect with Azran Financial," said another client in a Yelp review.

More information about the company can be found on their website. They are also offering free consultations to those who want to learn more about their accounting services. Interested parties may also connect with them through their official social media accounts on Facebook and Twitter to learn more about their latest news and important announcements.
